MRS. DAY WINS AGAIN ON APPEAL

C. P. R. Fails to Shake Supreme Court Award
Court of Appeal Delivers Several Judgments

Vancouver, March 7.—Seven appeal decisions were handed down by the Court of Appeal at its opening this morning, all but one of them being dismissals. All of the seven decisions were unanimous. They were announced by Mr. Justice Martin as follows:
Canadian Creditmen's Association vs. Goldstein—Dismissed.
Morrison vs. Dewdney-Dyking Commissioners—Allowed in part to Mrs. Morrison, and dismissed as to all other issues.
Nimmo vs. Adams—Dismissed.
Standard Trust vs. David Steele, Ltd.—Dismissed.
Day vs. C. P. R.—Dismissed.
Alexander et al vs. Vancouver Harbor Commissioners—Dismissed.
Gillespie vs. Charlie Song—Counterclaim allowed.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company appealed from the award of a special jury and the judgment of Mr. Justice Gregory, who gave the widow and children of the late Robert Scott Day damages in the sum of $20,000, on account of Mr. Day's death in December, 1920.
Mr. and Mrs. Day drove in their car to attend the annual Jubilee Hospital dance at the Empress Hotel on November 26, 1920. It was a rainy night. Mr. Day got out of the car to direct Mrs. Day about backing the car beyond the hotel portico. He was suddenly missed, and after a search was found at the foot of an eight-foot open area, then unprotected, down which he had dropped in the darkness. He died seven days later. At the trial it was shown that no light or protection was provided for the danger spot, and Mr. Justice Gregory and a jury made an award against which the railway company has made an unsuccessful appeal.
E. C. Mayers argued the appeal for the day heirs, and E. P. Davis, K. C., and J. E. McMullen appeared for the railway company.

AWARD OF $3,600 GIVEN APPROVAL

Appeal Court Gives Dewdney Dyking Ruling

Vancouver, March 7.—The Court of Appeal convened in Vancouver this morning, when several judgments were handed down in cases argued during the past few months.
The most interesting judgment was in Morrison vs. Dewdney, the Court of Appeal practically sustaining the trial judge, Chief Justice Hunter. The latter found the Commissioners of the Dewdney Dyking District liable to Mrs. Ellen M. Morrison and Clark A. Morrison in the amount of $4,600 for damage to the plaintiffs' farm at Hatzic. Mrs. Morrison, owner of the property since the death of her husband, John R. Morrison, was awarded $1,000 nominal damages to the revision, and her son Clark A. Morrison, tenant of the farm, was awarded $3,600 as compensation for loss of crops.
The Court of Appeal allowed the appeal from that portion of the Chief Justice's judgment which allowed nominal damages to Mrs. Morrison for her interest in the reversion; but the appeal from the $3,600 award to Clark A. Morrison was dismissed. The court sustained the trial judge's finding of negligence against the commissioners in the manner in which they maintained the dyke and slough protecting the Morrison farm.

Tsaritsyn, Russia, March 7.—Great crowds, like hungry birds, picking up falling grain, followed behind every leaky sack that was unloaded from the first train bringing American corn to this stricken country. These red-kernelled cobs were unfamiliar, but welcome to the starving peasants, always accustomed to rye, wheat and barley. The news spread rapidly and hungry folk gathered from all directions.

ALLIES OBJECT TO GERMAN WAR BOOK

Must Omit Mention of War in Artillery Manual

Action Is Taken by Control Commission

Paris, March 7.—The Allied Control Commission in Germany, which acts under the Treaty of Versailles to supervise the carrying out of the treaty's terms in the military and similar sections, has asked the Berlin Government to abrogate the new artillery manual, in which over the signature of Major-General von Seecht, the Chief of Staff, the following sentence occurs:
"The final object of these instructions is preparation for war."
The commission points out that under the Treaty of Versailles Germany is prohibited from having artillery for war purposes. It demands that a revised manual eliminating the clause objected to be put in its hands before March 20.

PAPINEAU LIBRARY SALE WAS $10,000

$300 Was Paid For "Champlain's Voyages"

Montreal, March 7.—At the close of the auction yesterday of the library of Louis Joseph Papineau, rebel leader in 1837, it was estimated that a sum close to $10,000 had been realized on the 1942 items of the collection.
The highest price received for any single volume was paid for Champlain's Voyages, published in Paris in 1632, by J. Turner of this city, who bid $300.
Four copies of the "Canadian Repealer's Almanac," 1856, edited by William Lyon Mackenzie, went for $5.50, and another buyer obtained the sum of $100 for the "Almanac of Independence and Freedom" for a few cents. On the other hand all of Mackenzie's works and papers and books relating to him were the subject of keen bidding between Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa buyers.

ARCTIC EXPLORERS ASK AN INQUIRY

Stefansson's Southern Party Scientists Make Request

Minister of Interior Urged to Take Action

Ottawa, March 7.—(Canadian Press)—Scientific men attached to the Southern party of the Stefansson Arctic Expedition are understood to have petitioned Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior, for an investigation into the conduct of the expedition. Official announcement is not yet available but it is stated that the scientific men claim they have been slandered in Stefansson's book "The Friendly Arctic," over which there has been so much controversy of late. They take the view that statements made in the book are a reflection upon their personal honor and that in justice to their personal and professional reputations they should be permitted to clear themselves of charges which they assert to be entirely without justification.

Controversy over the expedition has been widespread and there is every probability that it will be the subject of questioning in the House during the coming session.

$1,500,000 FOR NEW CITY HALL

Quebec Cabinet Thinks Montreal's $3,000,000 Too Much

Quebec, March 7.—It is understood that the Quebec Legislature will permit the insertion of a clause in the Montreal City Bill now before the Legislature authorizing the borrowing of a sum of money sufficient to enable the city to rebuild the City Hall, which was destroyed by fire last Friday night.

Indications here, however, are that the sum of $3,000,000 will not be authorized, but that the amount will hardly exceed $1,000,000, or at the very most $1,500,000.

Save The Children Fund Subscriptions Drop Off

Information from the headquarters of the "Save the Children Fund," London, England, tells of a great campaign being conducted by Dr. Nansen, the famous explorer, to arouse sympathy and support for the starving children of the Volga. Dr. Nansen says that unless sufficient help is promptly forthcoming many hundreds of thousands must inevitably perish from hunger and disease. The "Save the Children" fund is a means whereby help can be sent by the speediest route to the suffering children.

PROVINCIAL TIMBER BARRIER

Quebec Shipments to Other Provinces Discussed

Embargo on Unmanufactured Wood Suggested

Quebec, March 7.—Fabien Bugeaud, member for Bonaventure, speaking in the Legislature last night, urged that the Government take steps to prohibit the export of unmanufactured wood to other provinces.
Hon. H. Mercier, Minister of Crown Lands, advised caution in any move along these lines. He said there was not only the purely provincial side of the question, but there was a Canadian viewpoint as regarded inter-provincial relations.

While the embargo on the export of unmanufactured wood to the United States had produced excellent results and had developed a great industry in Quebec, the question of extending that embargo to other provinces was a very complex one which needed careful study.

DELFEST TO HAVE MARTIAL LAW

Mayor Says That Step Must Be Taken

Violence in City Leads to More Deaths

Belfast, March 7.—Rioting in Hanover Street this afternoon resulted in firing into a crowd by the military, killing two boys and wounding another.
The Lord Mayor announced that the imposition of martial law was imminent.
Gunmen Active.
Belfast, March 7.—Gunmen were active in the early morning hours to-day, increasing tension in this city in spite of efforts by police and soldiers. A man was shot dead on Perry Hill, and John Reddy, a news dealer, had part of his right arm shot off.

A carefully planned but futile attempt was made to destroy by fire a furniture making plant in Library Street, close to Royal Avenue.

Behind Chimneys.
To-day's disturbances were chiefly limited to the Carrick Hill Sinn Fein district, where gunmen hidden behind chimneys made potshots at workers going to the shipyards. This brought police from barracks nearby with machine guns and rifles, who did battle with the snipers. No casualties resulted so far as is known.

During the night, firing rarely ceased in the Stanhope Street area, adjacent to Carrick Hill. The military surrounded a wide district and overwhelmed it with machine guns fire. Unknown men entered the house of Katherine Lynch last night and shot her dead.

Thomas Eastwood was shot and killed in the Stanhope district.

NEW CONSTITUTION FOR IRELAND

Draft Submitted to Free State Ministry

Legislature For Ulster One of Proposals

Dublin, March 7.—The first draft of the Irish Free State constitution, which has been completed by a committee of which Dr. Daniel Fieglis is acting chairman, was submitted to-day to the Provisional Government for any changes that are deemed necessary. The constitution does not bind its people forever to the Irish Free State and contains nothing forcing them to continue a struggle for complete independence, according to reliable sources.

The constitution includes North-east Ulster in the Free State. The six counties would retain the powers they now possess, having their own legislature, functioning similarly to the Legislatures of the Canadian provinces or of the United States, with certain restrictions. Any Act passed by the Ulster Legislature, if contested, would eventually come before the Supreme Court of all Ireland on the question of its consonance with the constitution.

Political Calm In Britain Till After Genoa Conference

London, March 7.—(Canadian Press)—There is unmistakable relief in ministerial circles at the postponement of the political crisis and it is now believed there will be no untoward developments until, at all events, after the general conference at Genoa, to which Premier Lloyd George attaches the greatest importance. It is believed the desire to attend the conference was one of the reasons which induced Mr. Lloyd George to remain in office.

In quarters hostile to the coalition emphasis is laid on the temporary nature of the settlement and it is predicted the trouble will break out again.

Unionist Ministers, however, are understood to be confident that if they stand together and show resolute front in support of coalition principles they will be able to prevent any growth of the disruptive influence in the House. Meanwhile the die-hard movement continues active and discussion of the Irish Bill supplies the die-hards with an occasion for demonstrating hostility to the present Ministry.

No Pledge.
London, March 7.—Premier Lloyd George has deferred his resignation without giving his colleagues any pledge as to future action regarding the Premiership, according to the most reliable sources of information reaching the Associated Press to-day.

It is commonly accepted that he will retain leadership of the Government until the Irish legislation has been completed, and possibly until after the Genoa Conference. He is credited with an earnest desire to go to Genoa and will devote all his time to preparations for the trip during convalescence at his country home in Wales.

Needs Rest.
Nowhere has it been reliably suggested that his illness has been a disguise for diplomatic purposes, and it is generally agreed by his friends that he needs a complete rest. His supporters attribute his complaint to lack of loyalty of Conservative Coalitionists, causing nervous exhaustion. The Prime Minister has held career-laden ministerial offices for sixteen consecutive years, including his period as Premier. He stood up during the most trying years of the war and period of peace settlement and his admirers declare that any man of less hardy physique would have collapsed long ago. They now hope that for a time at least he will be permitted to enjoy undisturbed quiet.

BALFOUR GIVES HIS SUPPORT TO LLOYD GEORGE

London, March 7.—Sir Arthur Balfour declared himself to-day a believer in the benefits of the coalition. "I am emphatically of the opinion that the country's interests are best served by the coalition," he said, in addressing the Carlton Club luncheon in his honor. He would remain a member of the Conservative and Unionist Party, he added.

This was Sir Arthur's first public appearance since the formation of the coalition. He was accompanied by Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, Secretary of War, presided.

In Montreal.
Montreal, March 7.—Liabilities of Dunn & Company, a brokerage firm which assigned yesterday, are said to be about $20,000, while the assets it can not be approximately valued. It is understood, however, that the firm holds securities of a saleable character to a considerable amount.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores known as "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrous and you appear years younger. (Advt.)

BRIDGE CONFERENCE CALLED FOR TO-DAY

City Asks Power to Float a New Loan

Want Government and Railway Aid Increased

The City's new Johnson Street Bridge policy, as outlined in these columns yesterday, will be laid before Premier Oliver for his approval at a conference late this afternoon. It was announced at the City Hall at noon. At this conference Mayor William Marchant and other City representatives will ask the Provincial Government to allow the City Council to float, without the consent of the ratepayers, a new bridge loan for about $100,000 to pay excess expenses involved in the construction of the new harbor viaduct. The City representatives also will urge the Government and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, parties to the original bridge agreement to assist in paying the extra bridge expenses which have developed during the last few weeks.

Must Borrow Money.
The decision to hold a conference with Premier Oliver and C. P. R. representatives was reached by the Council last night after the Civic Finance Committee had wrestled with the bridge problem most of the day. The Finance Committee came to the conclusion that the City could not afford to pay the extra $80,000 or more needed to finish the new bridge out of general revenue even if such an expenditure were legal. The only possible method of raising this money, it was agreed, was to float a new loan. It was decided to ask the Government to allow the issue of such a loan without the submission of a money-by-law to the ratepayers. Mayor Marchant will head the City's deputation to the Premier and will be supported by Alderman E. S. Woodward, Chairman of the Finance Committee; Alderman Joseph Patrick, Chairman of the Public Utilities Committee; Alderman Robert Dewar, Chairman of the Public Works Committee; and Alderman A. E. Todd, leading critic of the whole bridge project.

H. E. Beasley, General Superintendent of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway Company also has been asked to attend the conference.

OBITUARY RECORD

St. Andrew's Cathedral was filled with a large congregation this morning for the funeral services over the late Edward Frederick Geiger. Rev. Father Wood conducted the service at 9 o'clock, the full choir being in attendance with Benedict Bantley at the organ. Among those present were J. T. Braden representing the Plumbers' Association, and the Victoria Aerie No. 12 of the Eagles attended in a body. The many beautiful floral tributes testified to the popularity of the late Mr. Geiger. The pallbearers were Messrs. F. A. Bantley, W. W. Baines, J. Kinsman, E. Burnes, W. Colpitta, and H. P. McDowell. Rev. Father Leternie officiated at the graveside in Ross Bay Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Andrew Fallfull will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 from the family residence, 1012 Pendergast Street. Rev. W. L. McKee will officiate. Interment will be made at Ross Bay Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Henry Marr, who passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital on March 3, took place yesterday afternoon from the B. C. Funeral Company chapel at 2.30. Rev. Dr. Campbell officiating. There was a very large attendance of friends and relatives, and many beautiful floral offerings covered the casket and hearse. Two hymns were sung, "Rock of Ages" and "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The following members of Court Victoria, A. O. F., acted as pallbearers—Brothers Alex. Robertson, C. G. Stewart, W. P. Edwards, B. Cooper, H. Doidge and A. Manson. Brother A. Manson read the Foresters' burial service at the grave.

The death occurred at the Jubilee Hospital last evening of Leonard Parkinson, aged 24 years. The remains are resting at the B. C. Funeral Chapel and funeral announcements will be made later.

George William Wetherell passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital last evening at the age of 24 years. He had been a resident of Victoria for the past ten years and is survived by his widow and one daughter, residing at 894 Caledonia Avenue, mother and father, two brothers, Thos. Henry and Herbert Spencer; also five sisters, Francis, in England; Barbara, at Powell River; Lena, at Port Angeles, and Millie and Florence, in Victoria. The funeral arrangements are in the hands of the B. C. Funeral Co., and notice of the funeral will be given.

LIQUOR BOARD TO SAVE MONEY

With the return to Victoria of Premier Oliver the Liquor Control Board is to cut down operating costs in accordance with the reported suggestion of the recent caucus of Liberal members that overhead might be cut.

The Board has put through an order moving its head offices from Belmont House to the Pither & Leiser warehouse. This will save $75 a month. The change will be made at the end of April.

The six-story Pither & Leiser warehouse is under lease to the Liquor Control Board. Its upper floors are used for storing liquor for the Victoria and Island trade. The fine offices on the ground floor are not used. These are the offices from which Pither & Leiser, before the days of prohibition, directed their extensive liquor business.

It was said to-day that the Board will be accommodated with more space at the warehouse than its members and employees have had at the Belmont House.

The proposal was first discussed of cutting down expenses by closing

LESSONS OF GENEVA CONFERENCE SUBJECT OF ADDRESS IN CITY

Gerald H. Brown, Assistant Deputy Minister of Labor for Canada, will address the Victoria Canadian Club in the Empress Hotel on Wednesday at noon on "The Lessons of the Geneva Conference." Mr. Brown was one of Canada's delegates to this conference, and is well qualified to speak upon the subject which he has chosen.

The Victoria wholesale warehouse and looking after all the business from the larger warehouse in Vancouver. The head office move, however, was decided on as a sort of compromise whereby overhead will be cut and the efficiency of serving the Victoria and Island stores maintained.

DELAY STOP IN RELIEF WORK

Shuffle of Council Committees Only Postpones Halt Temporarily

While unemployment relief will be greatly curtailed, and eventually stopped altogether by the City, the plan to halt relief works immediately, as announced in The Times last week, has been held up temporarily by the shuffle of committee work in the City Council. Last week, when Alderman Woodward was the Chairman of the Civic Unemployment Committee, he announced that he would recommend an immediate halt in unemployment relief work and doles. Yesterday, however, when this plan was to be brought before the City Council for approval, Mayor Marchant shifted the duties of the Unemployment Committee to the Public Utilities Committee in order to relieve Alderman Woodward and his colleagues, who already are overworked. For this reason Alderman Woodward did not feel justified in making recommendations on unemployment to the Council last night.

Must Call a Halt.
It became apparent to-day, however, that the Woodward plan would be carried out. "We have got to call a halt pretty soon," Mayor Marchant declared to-day. "We cannot go on forever at the present pace. The unemployed cannot consider the City as a sort of employment agency. They must get out and try to find jobs for themselves, now that Spring is upon us."

Both the Mayor and Alderman Woodward denied emphatically that Saturday's announcement about the closing down of relief work was a bluff to counteract the request of unemployed for standard city wages.

Must Take Consequences.
If the City Council stops relief works it must shoulder responsibility for the consequences, the Mayor and aldermen have been warned. A letter to the Council from A. T. Purry, secretary of the Unemployment Council, states that at a recent conference of representatives of the unemployed and local unions a resolution was passed protesting against the reported intention of the city to stop relief work.

"The responsibility for such action, whatever it may result in, must be placed upon the Mayor and aldermen of this city," Mr. Purry's letter warns the Council.

In another letter Mr. Purry, in the name of the unemployed, protested against the Council's action in placing the work of unemployment relief under the direction of the Friendly Help Association. The letter demands that the Mayor and aldermen "carry out their oath of office" in this connection.

NEW MEMBERS ARE SWORN IN

Preparations For Session at Ottawa

Opening Speech Will Be Heard Thursday

Ottawa, March 7. — (Canadian Press)—Swearing in of members of Canada's Fourteenth Parliament opened this morning and will continue to-morrow. The buildings are to-day a busy hive of officials and staff making final arrangements, and of members, many of them new to parliamentary life, locating their rooms.

This morning the Conservatives continued their caucus. To-morrow morning at 10 o'clock the Progressives will caucus on their attitude toward the Government. They will then formally decide whether or not Hon. T. A. Crerar, their leader, will assume the formal role of Opposition Leader.

Mr. Crerar arrived in Ottawa to-day and throughout the morning had a series of conferences with his followers. It is generally expected the Progressives will decide to leave the position of official Opposition Leader to Right Hon. Arthur Meighen.

Mr. Crerar himself is understood to favor such a course and although a number of Progressives do not hide their desire for an aggressive policy, it is not thought likely that the more militant idea will prevail. Meanwhile, the Cabinet is putting final touches to the speech from the throne. Indicating the general outlines of the new government's legislative programme for the session, tenor of the speech is eagerly awaited. Generally speaking, the programme is not expected to be heavy.

The interview given by Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance, last night sets at rest any possibility of the immediate opening of negotiations with the United States with a reciprocal trade agreement in view; but there is every likelihood of a reference to the situation with a general indication of the Government's view point. Some tariff changes are likely, although a general revision this session is regarded as highly improbable.

The text of the speech will not be made known until Thursday, but the probabilities are that it will indicate legislation on re-establishment; revision of the Bank Act; an immigration policy; amalgamation of the militia, navy, air forces and mounted police under one general department of defence, and a possible indication of policy in regard to the Government railways and merchant marine.

Fall Session.
With the census figures now generally available, it is also possible that the session will see a redistribution bill. As Parliament, however, is scheduled to meet again in the Fall, revision of the Bank Act and redistribution may be left over.

Miss Agnes Macphail, the first woman member of the Commons, arrived in Ottawa this morning in plenty of time to join her fellow Progressives in their caucus to-morrow. She had originally been given a room on the fourth floor among the Liberals, but this was changed to one among her own party, on the sixth floor.

A big cast has been assembled to support Marion Davies in "When Knighthood Was in Flower," which is now being filmed at the Cosmopolitan studios in New York. Among those engaged for important roles are Pedro de Cordoba, Forrest Stanley, Ernest Bennett, William Morris, Lynn Harding, Charles Gerard, Ruth Shepley, Theresa Maxwell Conover, Arthur Forrest and Macey Harlan. Robert G. Vignola is directing.

TOLD OF WORK FOR NEGLECTED CHILDREN

Superintendent Addressed Audience in Duncan

(Times Correspondence.)
Duncan—David O. Brankin, Provincial Superintendent of Neglected Children, gave a most interesting and practical address in the Old Fellows' Hall, Duncan, under the auspices of the Covichan Children's Aid Society. G. A. Cheeke, President of the Society, was in the chair, and representatives from Shawmigan and Chemainus, as well as from Duncan and the neighboring area, were present.

The speaker pointed out the measures for, he said, "The neglected child of to-day is the delinquent child of to-morrow," and the conservation of child life had never been so necessary as it was to-day. Children, he stated, were entitled to protection, physically, morally and spiritually. More time should be spent in removing causes rather than in dealing with defects.

In answer to requests, Mr. Brankin spoke especially of the work of his own department. Besides being Superintendent of Neglected Children for the Province, he is also Superintendent of the Boys' Industrial School at Coquitlam.

Mr. Brankin's great theory is that delinquency is generally caused by some physical defect and the first step taken when a boy enters the school is to hand him over to the doctor for a thorough over-hauling. Operations, if necessary, physical drill and home-like care, put the boys, wherever possible, in good physical condition.

Hospital Care.
Home, school, and church have failed before the boys come to the institution. It is their duty to supply all these and try something more, and hospital care is added.

The ninety boys in the Industrial School make and repair their own boots, under instructors. Some take up various trades and all have manual training and farming and poultry rearing are also learned. In the academic section the students range from receiving class to High School.

There are no locks on the doors nor bars on the windows, and during the past two years no boys have been lost from the institution. Any who feel inclined to bolt find the door open for their return. The boys are rewarded for doing right. They have a limited amount of pocket money and pay for any breakages or damage done.

Faith in himself, loyalty to his country and reverence are fostered. Mr. Brankin prefers that boys committed to the school should not have a definite time set. Some trades take longer to learn and in some the boys are ready to go out to hold their own sooner than others.

Adoptions.
During the past year and a half, 300 cases of adoption have passed through the hands of his department.

ment. No child in the Province may be legally adopted without the approval of his department.
The formal lecture began at about 2 p. m., and was of a little over half an hour's duration, but the audience was so much interested in Mr. Brankin's information that it was well after 4 o'clock before they had ceased to ask him questions regarding child welfare.

Visits Island.
(Times Correspondence.)
Sidney—Miss E. Nicholson, of Chapeau, Ontario, has gone up to Fulford Harbor on a five-month visit to her mother, Mrs. Menzies, of Beaver Point, South Salt Spring.

Miss Nicholson has been acting private secretary to her uncle, George Nicholson, ex-M. P. for East Algoma, who is one of the partners in the lumber and building material firm of Austin & Nicholson, of Chapeau, Ontario. This firm owns and operating four big sawmills, one each at Dalton, Devlin, Nicholson and Grassett. Mr. Nicholson was the Meighen party candidate in East Algoma in the recent Federal election, being defeated by the Liberal nominee, Dr. Carruthers, of Little Commet, Manitoulin Island.

Miss Nicholson will return to Chapeau after her holiday is over. W. J. L. Hamilton, of South Salt Spring Island returned home after a three-day business visit to Victoria.

The S. S. Edna Grace, Capt. Preen, of Victoria, called into port for two scoops loaded with lumber for Chemainus, consigned to Japan. From Chemainus the Edna Grace went to Genoa Bay to pick up three empty scoops for Victoria.

The S. S. Olive M. put into Sidney with a big boom of logs for the Sidney mills.

New School.
Campbell River, March 4.—About 80 people gathered at the residence of Mr. Vaughan at Gowland Harbor recently to celebrate the opening of the new school in that place. The new building measures eighteen by twenty-four feet, and is furnished with everything necessary to start work immediately. The celebration was in every way a great success, the new floor of the school being in excellent condition for dancing.

New Organization.
Merville.—The officers of the Merville Community Association will consist of a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and three directors. These are: President, W. S. Hunter; secretary-treasurer, E. F. Thomas; complaints committee, J. Pearce and F. Hughes; directors, J. D. Clarke and G. Ker. The other officials act as directors ex-officio.

BOY SCOUTS WON FOOTBALL CUP

Exciting Game at Duncan; Badminton Games

(Times Correspondence.)
Duncan—Amid great excitement and enthusiasm the Boy Scouts defeated Lonsdale's School (Shawnigan Lake), at association football on the Recreation Ground, Duncan, and thus gained possession of the much coveted Business Men's Cup for one year. Mr. Lonsdale's boys had held this cup for the past two years, and had they won it again, it would have been theirs for "keeps," so the Scouts were determined to wrest it from them, and this they managed to do by a narrow margin, the final score being 2 goals to 1 in their favor.

At half time the score stood one all, and it was anybody's match, but the Scouts managed to forge ahead, just before the final whistle was sounded by referee Mr. Lonsdale.

As the weather was a little warmer and the ground not quite so hard, about eighteen turned out for the rugby practice. From these the team will be chosen which will play against the Wanderers of Victoria next Saturday, March 11 at Duncan.

Badminton.
A team of eight, four ladies and four gentlemen, journeyed down from Parkville to play against an eight of the Duncan Badminton Club. Some very good play was seen on both sides, especially in the men's double between L. James and E. Mollett, and N. Craig and F. Kingston, but Duncan managed to win out with a total of five matches to three.

The visitors were entertained to lunch at Seyland's Restaurant and tea by the Club at the Agricultural Hall. Mrs. Garrard was responsible for the tea arrangements and carried them through most capably.
The full scores were as follows. Parkville players mentioned first:

Ladies' Doubles.
Mrs. Weld and Miss Todd, lost to Mrs. Chorlton and Miss Dove, 9-15, 3-15.
Mrs. Thwaites and Miss Parke, lost to Mrs. Aldersey and Miss Price, 10-15, 10-15.

Men's Doubles.
L. James and E. Mollett, beat N. Craig and F. Kingston, 15-11, 2-15, 15-9.
E. Thwaites and R. Baird, lost to L. Rourke and A. Bazett, 11-15, 11-15.

Mixed Doubles.
Miss Parke and E. Mollett, beat Mrs. Chorlton and N. Craig, 15-8, 9-15, 15-10.
Mr. and Mrs. Thwaites, lost to Mrs. Aldersey and L. Rourke, 4-15, 3-15.

Mrs. Weld and L. James, beat Miss Dove and F. Kingston, 15-13, 15-5.
Miss Todd and R. Baird, lost to Miss Price and A. Bazett, 14-18, 15-13, 3-15.

POLICE SEEK AGENT OF VICTORIA PAPER

Nanaimo, March 7.—The city police are seeking a man who, within the past few days made a tour of Chinatown and Chinese laundries, representing himself as a government road tax collector. In every case he collected two dollars, and gave a numbered receipt. The receipt read that the holder had paid two perfectly good dollars for one year's subscription to the Saturday Review, Victoria.

One Chinaman, who had already paid taxes, had a white friend read his receipt, and afterwards laid a charge with the police.

Kingston, Jamaica, March 6.—A proposal has been submitted to the Legislature which would prohibit Chinese and any aliens who might be considered undesirable from landing unless they should pass a test proving they are not illiterate and pay $1,000. Feeling is high here against Chinese immigration.

GROWS LIGHTER

Uncertain of His Future; Meeting Soon in Paris

Paris, March 7.—The financial standing of Charles Hapsburg, former Emperor of Austria-Hungary, in future years looks extremely dark as the ministries of the states created out of his old empire are making arrangements for a meeting in Paris March 15 to discuss what they are ready to contribute toward the upkeep of the ex-monarch in his exile home on the island of Madeira.

It is understood that Italy is the only country which is considering favorably the proposition of assessments to meet his expenses, while Roumania has not yet announced its attitude. Jugo-Slavia and Czechoslovakia are understood to be opposed to contributing anything toward his expenses.

Great Britain and France at the last meeting of the Council of Ambassadors decided they would not contribute to Hapsburg's upkeep and suggested that the countries most interested, namely, the Austria succession states, get together and provide an amount annually to meet his household expenses. France and Great Britain considered 250,000 francs a reasonable annual allowance.

POPE TALKED WITH CARDINAL BEGIN

London, March 7.—A Reuter dispatch from Rome says the Pope received Cardinal Begin, Archbishop of Quebec, in a farewell audience Monday and expressed satisfaction at having made his personal acquaintance after having for years known of his zeal and piety.
His Holiness said he took great interest in Canada and admired the development and enterprise of that new country and the wonderful progress it had achieved in all fields of activity.

He authorized Cardinal Begin to impart the apostolic benediction to all the faithful in Canada.

HOTEL MAID LEFT $15,500 ESTATE

Woman in New York Made No Will

New York, March 7.—Mrs. Mary Gilles, who received $15,500 as a maid at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel until her death last week, left an estate of $15,500, with no will disposing of it and without known relatives to claim it. Her wealth, which became known only to-day, was deposited in two banks and a safe deposit box.
Mrs. Gilles was fifty-five years old.

ELEVEN GIRLS KILLED IN ENGLAND BY AN EXPLOSION

Birmingham, England, March 7.—Eleven girls were killed and thirty severely injured last night in an explosion of powder which they were removing from cartridges at Tipton, a short distance Northwest of Birmingham.

The faces of the injured girls were blackened beyond recognition. The disaster occurred at the Three Knowles factory, which recently purchased 150,000 tons of cartridges from the Government. The factory employed more than fifty girls, who were engaged in the task of removing the metal portions of the cartridges prior to melting of the metal into ignites. The explosive contents were being placed in separate receptacles.

DOCUMENTS WERE SAVED IN MONTREAL

City Hall Burned But Tax Lists in Existence

Montreal, March 7.—Many important documents thought to have been lost in the City Hall fire, including the taxation and other statistics of great value, were found to have come through unscathed when work of examining the debris in the building was carried on yesterday. The vital records of the city were in a vault which resisted the fire.
Decision was received yesterday to have the investigation into the fire made by the police instead of by the Fire Commissioner, though there is no suggestion that criminal charges might arise out of the burning of the City Hall.

OFFICIALS MAKE CHANGES IN EGYPT

Cairo, March 6.—The Egyptian Cabinet at a meeting yesterday appointed Egyptians as under-secretaries of the Ministries of Health, Communications and Agriculture. They will take the places of Englishmen who formerly held these positions. The Cabinet confirmed the appointment of senior British officials in the Ministry.

The meeting of the Cabinet was historic, inasmuch as the British financial adviser, after having attended cabinet meetings for the past 38 years was absent to-day under the new plan laid down by Field Marshal Viscount Allenby, the British High Commissioner.

It is said that foreign bondholders will not be affected by the new arrangement.
A dispatch from Cairo said: "The title of Sultan of Egypt is expected to be changed to the King of Egypt when the British Parliament ratifies the removal of the protectorate and recognizes Egypt's independence."

Egypt will be provided with which the Sultan of which he has renounced by the Sultan of which his prerogatives."

ELEVEN CONSTABLES TO BE EXECUTED

Results of Riots in Philippine Islands

Manila, March 7.—(Associated Press)—Eleven sergeants and corporals of constabulary were sentenced to death by the Supreme Court yesterday for participation in a riot December 15, 1920, in which four police officers and four other persons were killed and a number wounded. The defendants had appealed from the decision of the court of first instance, which had sentenced them only to life imprisonment.

Sixty-six other defendants, enlisted constabulary men, who received sentences of seventeen years for their part in the murders, were sentenced by the Supreme Court yesterday to life imprisonment.

"OLD MAID" GAME STARTED A FIGHT

New York, March 7.—A general fight after a particularly savage session of "Old Maid," hitherto little identified with brawls over cards, last night landed Louis Friedman, fifty, in police court with most of his family and several outsiders appearing as complainants.
From beneath voluminous head bandages, Friedman admitted to the judge, who could see only his eyes, that he was the defendant. His wife, Molly, his son, Benjamin, and Harry Manes, his stepson, told the court the head of the house had broken up the game when he "got the Old Maid." All exhibited wounds in mute testimony of the heat of the fight that followed.
Charged with felonious assault, the elder Friedman was held in $1,500 bail for examination to-day.

BOY SCOUTS WON FOOTBALL CUP

Exciting Game at Duncan; Badminton Games

(Times Correspondence.)
Duncan—Amid great excitement and enthusiasm the Boy Scouts defeated Lonsdale's School (Shawnigan Lake), at association football on the Recreation Ground, Duncan, and thus gained possession of the much coveted Business Men's Cup for one year. Mr. Lonsdale's boys had held this cup for the past two years, and had they won it again, it would have been theirs for "keeps," so the Scouts were determined to wrest it from them, and this they managed to do by a narrow margin, the final score being 2 goals to 1 in their favor.

At half time the score stood one all, and it was anybody's match, but the Scouts managed to forge ahead, just before the final whistle was sounded by referee Mr. Lonsdale.

As the weather was a little warmer and the ground not quite so hard, about eighteen turned out for the rugby practice. From these the team will be chosen which will play against the Wanderers of Victoria next Saturday, March 11 at Duncan.

RECIPROCITY NOT YET.

Canadians who cannot disguise their dependency over the uncomfortable falling off of our export trade will experience a sense of keen disappointment over Mr. Fielding's inability to make progress with his reciprocity proposals during his recent visit to Washington. It is not necessary to go beyond the official statistics relating to our foreign trade or a consideration of the size of our national debt to realize that we are not in a position to dictate the terms by which commercial interchange between this and other countries shall be brought about. Last year's tremendous decrease in business is a solemn reminder that if we are to pay our bills we must find more markets for our goods. Particularly is it imperative that Western Canada find a greater outlet for her wares across the border, and if President Harding is successful in introducing a little more flexibility into the existing tariff arrangement a very desirable improvement may be brought about. In any case we need not fear for the old objections; the school that believes we can increase a business turnover by decreasing imports is fast losing its pupils. Freer interchange between Canada and the United States would contribute a large part of the solution for our serious economic problems.

THIS MONTH'S CONVENTION.

It is doubtless quite unnecessary to remind the Chamber of Commerce and other public bodies in this city that the annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of British Columbia is an event of first rate importance to Vancouver Island. When the delegates arrive for the gathering at the end of the month some programme should have been formulated by which every participant in the business of the convention will be able to get behind a cohesive Province-wide campaign to bring tourists and still more tourists to British Columbia during the present year. No better organization exists than the Associated Boards for the carrying out of a plan similar to that recently inaugurated by the City of Seattle for the State of Washington and referred to in these columns a few days ago. With each body represented at this month's meeting working upon a definite plan—which need entail but very little cost—tourist business should easily be doubled. If the visitor is made to feel that he is wanted here and is properly welcomed and looked after when he is here he will come again even if he does not become a permanent resident. And it is an increase in permanent residents that is so much desired in the Province. Get the people by the tourist route and put your municipalities on their feet.

STRANGELY SILENT.

In characteristic style The Manitoba Free Press has begun to wonder why The Montreal Gazette and other financial weeklies in Eastern Canada have expressed surprise that a privately-owned institution could be so careless as to go wrong. The Winnipeg journal naively reminds the advocates of private ownership of the horror which they experienced and the "I told you so" tone which they adopted when a somewhat famous publicly-owned utility turned out—as The Free Press describes it—to be "a rat hole down which millions of the public moneys disappeared." Equally pointedly does it manifest its astonishment that a financial organization possessing "all the essentials prescribed by The Gazette for successful operation—private ownership, control and supervision by business men and a purpose, very apparent in its management, to make money for private individuals," should fall by the wayside and literally blow up with a loud roar. But it finally asks why The Gazette and its colleagues of the financial press have scarcely a word to say about the phenomenon. No doubt it will still wonder and find refuge in "consistency, thou art . . ." and so on.

HELP FOR RUSSIA.

There are a number of organizations in Canada collecting funds for the assistance of famine-stricken people in Russia. All the various funds are necessary and the combined effort cannot hope to meet the case. But it occurs to us that the Dominion Government might make an appropriation for the purchase of some of our surplus stocks of wheat and seed grain of which Russia stands so much in need. It might even be sent in exchange for raw materials that she should be able to send us as soon as she regains her normal position in the world. In any case this country would do well to follow the lead set by the United States in circulating an appropriation of this kind at home. To adopt the plan in behalf of sorely stricken Russia would be infinitely better than lending fifty million dollars to a couple of European States which have not had the decency to try to pay even the interest on the accommodation extended. Even if no economic return were assured the knowledge that it had responded to the humanitarian appeal should be comforting balm to Canadian conscience.

THE OTTAWA INCIDENT.

Nearly every Canadian newspaper informed the general public of this country yesterday that Mrs. Asquith called at Rideau Hall and found Lord and Lady Byng out. That being the case she left her card and returned to her hotel. Politeness and custom obliged their Excellencies to take note of the incident and an appropriate message was promptly dispatched to the caller. That same evening Mrs. Asquith lectured in Ottawa but the occupants of Government House went to see a hockey match. Perhaps it was an unfortunate coincidence that the two events clashed; but we are unable to see anything at all unusual in the incident. Mrs. Asquith is the wife of an important personage who was at one time Prime Minister of Great Britain. She is also the author of a set of memoirs which brought her more notoriety than fame. Outside of this she is a conspicuous figure in that branch of London society which is entertained by originality rather than by the usual sort of drawing room fare. However, her presence in Canada, and a call at Government House that seemed to have been poorly timed, is of little or no interest to us here. Yet one can be kind and trust that her tour has been a financial success.

SURELY MISQUOTED.

In one of the Vancouver newspapers a few days ago Mr. J. H. Falconer, of the Liquor Control Board, is reported to have said that "whisky is the universal remedy for the flu"—an observation which seems to have been inspired by a recent increase in sales over the vending counters. What medical knowledge Mr. Falconer possesses we do not know; but we would suggest that he has been misquoted. This belief is emphasized by a further statement with which he is credited that reads as follows: "As every dollar spent over the counter of the Government liquor shops goes into the treasury of the Province the citizens should not be too vigorous in these days of high taxation when they set out to denounce the epidemic." In view of the fact that Mr. Falconer occupies an important position in the public service, a position related to the administration of a controversial branch of the Government's activities, we hesitate to believe that he could have been guilty of "boosting" the sale of potent liquid by imparting a doubtful conception of its curative properties in respect of a malady from which a number of people die each year.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Sixteen Mormon missionaries are setting out to convert the city of Toronto. This is self-sacrifice with a vengeance.

If Sunday's meeting at College Green can be taken as an indication of Dublin's attitude towards the Anglo-Irish Treaty Messrs. Griffith-Collins and Company ought not to have very great difficulty at the polls.

Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, who led the 1920 revolution which temporarily embarrassed President Ebert, has offered to surrender himself for trial under certain conditions. Meanwhile he is enjoying the sanctuary of an unnamed spot in Sweden.

As The London Star tritely puts it "surely this is the first time that an ally has been charged rent for trenches where in she shed her blood for the charger." Yet Great Britain has paid France twenty-two millions of pounds for dock dues, rent of houses and public buildings, rent of trenches, and so on. This is surely tragic humor.

GREATER VICTORIA?

To the Editor.—Mr. Kelles letter in Saturday's Times was most interesting. In fact more like a Garden of Eden story. Would Mr. Kelles give his opinion on the following: Would it benefit Vancouver Island to separate it from Canada and B. C. and become a Free State? I have quite a few friends who would support this move.

WALTER J. DANDRIDGE.

RE UNEMPLOYED.

To the Editor.—Would you please publish these few lines advocated by our friend, Alderman Woodward? Has he not told the Union not to accept a cut in wages? Now he says we are not worth one dollar per day. This is what he told a delegation of women. Now Mr. Woodward, do you think every unemployed man is a drifter or a stone man? Try it yourself for three days. I guarantee no foreman would pay you any more. I, for one, earn my $2.00 per day, but I am not enough to keep a wife and five children, especially when you don't always get work every week? How does the city expect to get a full day's work unless we get a living wage? Don't send old men and boys on the rock pile, put them where they belong. So, Mr. Woodward, put yourself in our place. You were up against it yourself when you tried to remember you are not on the Council for life.

WANTON CRUELTY.

To the Editor.—It is always to be regretted that in any community there should be found persons who are indifferent to the suffering of others. Such individuals are hardly likely to be a moral asset to any community. Mr. Kelles has been made a member of motorists running down animals without even troubling to see what mischief they may have done. An incident of this kind occurred a few days ago when an individual took the trouble to avert his car on purpose to run over a cat in the road. Unfortunately for the animal it was killed but it is hard to understand why the moral maker-up of persons who take pleasure in inflicting pain.

We are apt to forget that the life of an animal is as dear to it as our lives are to us and that it is easy to do wrong to what the expense would be. Persons witnessing cases of this nature are asked to take the number of the vehicle and report to the S.P.C.A. or to the Police, when the offenders can be dealt with as the law requires. B.C. S.P.C.A.

RE ESQUIMALT.

To the Editor.—Those of us who have attended recent meetings of the Council of Esquimalt have heard wonderful reports of a new apparatus. We are told that it can be bought, complete with tanks, chemicals, and all, for $3,000. Moreover, we have seen letters from the meeting from different bodies in the Municipality, recommending the Council to close with this offer. One of these bodies is a branch of the Board of Health, and another is the Esquimalt branch of the Y.M.C.A. Sir, could any of your readers tell me how many of that body have the legal right to vote and advise on the spending of public money?

The Women's Institute were also quoted as in favor of this new move, and here again we have people that, according to our by-laws, are not entitled to vote on money matters. Further, any intelligent person knows that $3,000 is only the tip of the iceberg of the cost. The apparatus would be purchased, house, and man the apparatus, would cost five times as much as the $3,000 which is now dangled before the ratepayers. Would it not have been a better plan, Mr. Kelles, to have called a meeting of the ratepayers and put the matter fairly to them, as being the only people legally entitled to spend public money. Instead of going to the different societies for their support? We, as ratepayers, have the right to know how much this scheme is going to cost, as we have to pay the piper.

CORRECTION.

To the Editor.—I wish to correct an error which occurred in a dispatch from Ottawa published in your issue of last night, setting out the records obtained by B. C. Forestry under Canadian Record of Performance. My pen of ten birds shown as having obtained four ordinary records and one advanced record. This should be reversed as I actually hold the Department's Certificates for four Advanced Records, and one Ordinary. My highest individual record shows a score of one hundred and twenty-five (225), whereas that is the lowest of the four Advanced Records, the highest being a score of two hundred and eighty-four (284), and the other two are two hundred and seventy-four (274) and two hundred and seventy-two (272). These figures are herewith submitted for verification. Incidentally 40 per cent of my entry qualified for advanced certificates, which is the highest percentage quoted. The error entails no financial consequence, since the keeping of poultry is merely a hobby of mine. Nevertheless, to the Forestry man likes to see his birds fail to get the credit that is due to them.

Undoubtedly the error will subsequently be corrected by the Department at Ottawa, but a great many people who read the original article will never see the correction, so I will thank you for giving this space.

FAMINE FUND.

To the Editor.—Please convey to the citizens of Victoria my sincere thanks for the touching gifts of clothes and food-stuffs, received for the Famine Stricken in Russia.

I am happy that through the help of our charitable people in Victoria and District some means have been given to the millions of sufferers on the Volga, although in the face of the great disaster this help is still small. So it is the intention of this committee to keep this fund going for a long time. I cannot be too earnestly urged upon our people that the need is greater now than it has ever been. Latest reports received by our office say that not only is cholera in an epidemic form, rampant, and spreading, but the Russian famine has now got a grip on the country.

These stricken creatures are dependent on the conscience of the world. It is unfortunate for these people in Southern Russia that the winter has no food to eat at a time when the world is tired of tales of human misery, sick of its own troubles and busy with its own selfishness, in trying to cure its own ills. It is a monotonous, miserable, dreary cry, and these Russian peasants are unlucky as usual because all who would tell the tale of their suffering to the outside world find a bleak indifference, even a hostile spirit in their audience. The world's imagination has become deadened by three years of appeal for starving peoples.

Therefore, Mr. Editor, I would suggest that we, as citizens of Victoria, ask the Government in view of the enormity of the situation and the gravity thereof, and in view of the amount of surplus grain which we have in Canada, that we bring to the attention of the Government the desirability of floating a large loan, say about $50,000,000 (Ten million Dollars), and move this wheat, and incidentally do some good to Canada.

At the present time the few thousands of dollars which are collected by the various funds in Canada, and they are many, are not sufficient to do much good. It is hoped that the United States, and this country derives little or no benefit from them.

Secretary, Canadian Famine Relief Committee, 215 Bayward Building.

FREE HIGHER EDUCATION.

IS IT FULLY APPRECIATED?

To the Editor.—Touring Canada from East to West, one cannot but observe and comment upon the wonderful educational facilities offered to the young people, free of charge. The writer having completed a tour of the world in very much less time than it takes to travel from Victoria to the Canadian Pacific and High Schools, or to be correct, the Free Schools. The beautiful buildings, the every modern convenience, are certainly a revelation to the English visitor.

At this time the complaints from Victoria taxpayers, the writer feels that the time is ripe to place certain facts before the public. It is hoped that these facts may open new channels of thought along educational lines. Observations gained during High School teaching experience call for comment respecting the appreciation of free higher education. In the High Schools to-day hundreds of students are taking subjects that they have not the slightest interest in. If they attend the classes for fifty years no real progress will be made in the subject, simply because they are not interested. They attend the classes at their parents' request, simply because the subject has to be taken in.

During these periods the students' mind, and that of their instructor is wasted. There is no real learning. The average student needs to be more methodical in learning. There is too much mechanical memorizing of whole pages. Why not memorize important facts, and develop the thinking capacity by analyzing the facts? One also observes that boys and girls are not more aware of text books and laboratory apparatus. There appears to be a great deal of unnecessary destruction.

There certainly needs to be some elimination in the High Schools. Many talented pupils are allowed to accumulate the dull ones. There are others, in fact, who lack concentration. These pupils are not more aware of text books and laboratory apparatus. There appears to be a great deal of unnecessary destruction.

In England free education is given up to the age of sixteen, or, in some cases, up to the age of eighteen, or High School entrance standard. An English boy or girl would be overwhelmed at the amount of being able to learn Latin, Greek, French, Algebra and Geometry, free. It is well that readers realize that the English person has a knowledge of French, Latin, etc., they have had to pay many dollars for their education. The preparatory and public schools of England, patronized by the middle and upper classes, charge from $500 to $2,000 a year for board and tuition.

If a student, on leaving the free schools in England, wishes to pursue studies, he or she can win a scholarship. This certificate entitles them to three years free tuition at the Grammar Schools.

The Grammar Schools are something like the High Schools in Canada. The regular tuition fees are from $50 to $150 a year. This is the extreme expense of all books and laboratory apparatus. Naturally the school taxes of England are as high as in Canada. Would it not be better to run the High Schools of Canada on English Grammar School lines, free of financial standpoint. By so doing necessary elimination would be automatic. Greater care of books and laboratory apparatus would be assured. Taxpayers would be better pleased. Many parents are now paying out money for their children to receive satisfactory tuition in subjects taken in the High Schools. This would not be necessary as elimination would result in a superior standard of education.

The students would, without doubt, appreciate still more their education, and energies exerted by the teaching staff.

It is not wise to cut teachers' salaries, otherwise the standard of education will deteriorate. The standard of Canadian Matriculation is fully low enough compared with Great Britain and Europe.

COSLEY-BART, G.B.E.

FARE CUT TO SIX CENTS IN SPOKANE URGED

Spokane, March 7.—Provision for a 6-cent fare, with universal transfers, and for continuation of jitney bus service until the end of 1922 were included in a proposed ordinance for consideration of the two local street car systems submitted to officials of the companies by the City Council to-day.

The proposed ordinance, is submitted as a substitute for one offered by the companies providing for a 7-cent fare based on a "service at cost" arrangement and for elimination of jitney bus competition. Present street car fares are 8 cents with transfers limited.

PITTSBURG THUG USED AMMONIA; WAS ARRESTED

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 7.—Dressed as a woman and armed with a water pistol loaded with ammonia, a bandit to-day fired at Charles Lazaro, a bank messenger carrying $15,000, as he alighted from a street car at Liberty and sixth avenues, a busy business district. Lazaro, although blinded, held to his satchel and grappled with the bandit. Policemen Clarence Timmons saw the struggle and, rescuing Lazaro, arrested the bandit who gave his name as Joseph Lindsay.

YOUTH GIVEN TERM OF THREE MONTHS

Accused Says He Took Suit to Buy Food, and Had Been Refused Housing.

William O'Brien, a youth, who yesterday pleaded guilty to the theft of a suit of clothes from R. K. Woods, a roomer at the Young Men's Christian Association, which the accused said he had taken to secure food, was today sentenced to three months' imprisonment with hard labor. The additional statements of two men were taken, though not on oath, as the accused had pleaded guilty.

Raymond E. Ritchie told the court that the accused had appealed to him on Sunday evening last for a bed. The accused had signed the register and had been asked for 75 cents. This he could not pay, and the janitor had told him he could not have a bed, but that he could "stick around" as he, the janitor, would be there all night.

On Wednesday the man had returned, minus the overcoat he was wearing on the previous night, which he told the court yesterday he had sold off back to buy food, and had purchased a bed for the night, being placed in a double room with R. K. Woods at the Young Men's Christian Association.

R. K. Woods told the court that the accused had occupied a bed in his room on Wednesday night, a suit and a pair of boots disappearing next morning.

Magistrate Jay imposed a sentence of three months' hard labor.

FINE IS IMPOSED

Lee Hong Fined $100 and $5 Costs on Conviction of Keeping an Opium Den.

Lee Hong, charged with being the keeper of an opium den in premises at 357 Flagstaff Street, known as the Chinese Club, was fined $100, and $5 costs in the city police court to-day. A default order of three months in jail was imposed as an option.

W. C. Morehead appeared for the accused, and submitted a lengthy list of legal references, contending that a conviction for a single incident did not constitute the offence of "keeping."

C. L. Harrison, city prosecutor, submitted that the references of Mr. Morehead did not apply, and that in this there was prime facie evidence. Inspector Heatley and Sgt. Blackstock gave evidence of the raid. Keys thrown by the accused down a grating were rescued, and opened the door of a room in which opium and opium smoke was found, with the

THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

MRS. COON TELLS HER HUSBAND SOMETHING.

Part III.

One day in March when the sun was warm but the trees still bare, Mr. Coon peeked out of his home to see if the weather was fine enough for him to look about a bit among the weather-soaked leaves.

On a bare limb of a tree near by Mr. Coon saw a dejected and forlorn-looking bird, its feathers a dusky olive-brown, its breast yellowish-white.

"See if you know who this early arrival is," he said to Mrs. Coon.

Mrs. Coon poked her head out. "That is Phoebe. He is waiting for his wife," she said. Mr. Coon looked at her. "You mean, I suppose that she is waiting for her husband," he replied.

"No, I don't," replied Mrs. Coon; "I mean just what I said. That is Mr. Phoebe and he is waiting for Mrs. Coon."

Royal Wedding Gift Presented to Guides

"FOXLEASE", FRONT ELEVATION

FROM THE ROSE GARDEN

"Foxlease" beautifully situated in the New Forest near Lyndhurst, Hants, England, was one of Princess Mary's wedding gifts, which she gave away; the lucky recipients were the Girl Guide officers to whom the royal bride gave it as an officers' training school. Close to Lyndhurst, Hants, this exquisitely appointed residence stands in grounds which are beautifully timbered and rise away from the house in lovely old park lands. These will form an ideal training ground for Guides. The three-story Georgian house has all modern conveniences such as electric light and heating. There are five spacious reception rooms and twenty-four bedrooms, there will be ample space for instruction in every phase of Guide work. In this delightful home girls will be trained by short courses to act as lieutenants, captains and commissioners. The subjects are varied and interesting—camping, sports, nature study, child hygiene, citizenship and organization in general of Guide companies are a few.

Seventy boys have enrolled. Miss Gatenby, Educational Secretary, stated the Chapter was donating the London Times for one year to the Lampson Street School and appealed for framed pictures for the school. In response to an appeal from Miss Belson a donation of $2 was voted to the S.P.C.A.

Social Service Work as was carried on in Victoria was explained by Mrs. Belson and others and the Chapter voted $5 per month to this work. A free-will offering from the members also resulted in the raising of $10.20 for a particularly sad case now being dealt with by the Victoria committee. Mrs. Booth reported of the progress of the Esquimalt Child Hygiene Council and $5 was donated to the work.

Mrs. Booth was appointed a delegate to the National Chapter to be held in Vancouver in May, and Messrs. Croft, Belson, Mowat, David Miller and Miss Cook, Councilors to the Provincial Chapter, which meets in New Westminster in April. Lady Barnard was renewing her membership and enclosing a generous donation to the Chapter's funds.

Mrs. Thompson invited the members to be her guests at the Sailors' Club for the April meeting. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem, after which the hostesses, assisted by her sister and others, served delicious tea and dainty accessories.

AGNES DEANS CAMERON CHAPTER.

It was decided at the meeting of the Agnes Deans Cameron Chapter, L.O.D.E., held last night that the next sewing meeting will take place during the last week of this month. The resignation of Mrs. E. E. Wootton was received with regret. Mrs. Wootton has been the Chapter's "Echoes" Secretary; and Mrs. Hardie, Regent, will fill this vacancy pro tem. The Chapter will assist with the Amputation tag day. Mrs. Compston donated flags, which have been placed on the soldiers' graves. Mrs. Cliff Cameron was elected as a new member.

MARGUERITE CHAPTER.

At the monthly meeting of the Marguerite Chapter, L.O.D.E., held last evening at the home of the First Vice-Regent, Miss Helen Macdonald, preliminary plans were made for a concert to be held after Easter.

Five new members were proposed, the Misses Helen and Betty Stratfield, Katherine Bagshaw, Anne Sherwood and Eileen Innes. The sum of $5 was voted to the L.O.D.E. wedding gift for Princess Mary.

GRAMOPHONE TIPS

The unpleasant scraping noise that occurs when some gramophone records are played is due to fine particles of dust lying in the sound grooves of the record.

Procure a strip of thin brass about a quarter of an inch wide and two inches long. Fasten one edge to the forward edge of the sound box by means of a screw or solder, and bend up the other end, attaching a small piece of felt with glue or secotene. Now bend the strip until its springiness holds it up lightly in the record a little in front of the needle. The felt removes all dust, and a perfectly clean surface is presented to the needle.

If a record has become warped, lay over it a piece of ordinary window glass suitably weighted at the corners and expose it to the sun for a while. The warmth will soften the wax, and the weighted glass will press the record back to its original flatness. If care is taken the delicate sound grooves will not be injured by the operation.—Tit-Bits.

Violet Messerou is to play the leading role in "The Shepherd King," which J. Gordon Edwards is producing in Italy and the Holy Land for Fox.

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE CHAPTER.

In addition to its many other good works, which includes the raising of funds for the erection of a sun room at the Florence Nightingale Chapter, the chapter undertook to donate a complete layette each month, or its equivalent in money to the Municipal Council. The chapter followed the report given by Mrs. Seabrook Young, in which she stated that two layettes were given out last month to needy cases. The meeting donated $25 to her committee, which includes Mrs. Young, Mrs. F. J. Hall and Mrs. Gregson.

Mrs. James Dunsinville has generously offered the use of the grounds at Hatley Park to the Chapter for a tea to be held in the Spring.

Mrs. H. K. Prior, reporting for the Soldiers' Graves committee, announced that the Chapter has now undertaken the care of two additional graves. As she is now convener of the committee in charge of the hospital sun room scheme, Mrs. Prior was released from her duties as convener of the Soldiers' Graves committee. The Chapter extended a sincere vote of thanks to Mrs. Prior for her work and appointed Mrs. Humber to her place on the Graves committee.

Councillors for the Provincial Chapter and National Chapter, I. O. D. E., were nominated. Mrs. Hasell receiving the Chapter's nomination as national councillor. Mrs. H. F. Crowe and Mrs. Catterall will represent the Chapter at the formal opening of the Amalgamated Veterans' Association on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Hasell and Mrs. Brentzen will attend the social service meeting at the Y. W. C. A. on March 15.

Mrs. Catterall will represent the Chapter at the meetings of the Local Council of Women, and Miss Unwin will report on the progress of the Girl Guides.

Mrs. Porter gave a splendid report on weekly visits made to the T. B. ward at the hospital, and a letter of appreciation was read from one of the soldier-patients in the ward.

One new member was welcomed, Mrs. W. W. Northcott, Jr., while one new member was proposed, Mrs. A. B. Gonsason. Mrs. Gonsason reported on the recently-held card party, at the home of the regent, Mrs. H. F. Crowe, and a standing vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. Crowe and Mrs. Gonsason for their kindness in lending their home for the occasion, and for their assistance.

ESQUIMALT CHAPTER.

Members of the Esquimalt Chapter, L.O.D.E., met at the home of Miss Meyer, Esquimalt, Road, yesterday afternoon for the monthly meeting of the Chapter. Mrs. W. H. Belson, Vice-Regent, presided in the absence of Mrs. Croft.

Much satisfaction was expressed at the report that the Esquimalt Cadet Corps had been revived, largely through the efforts of Major Mulcahy.

DIVORCE CUSTOM DEFIED.

The first Japanese woman to bring divorce proceedings against her husband is Mme. Aki-ko Ito, a cousin of the Emperor and a well-known authoress.

Hitherto only men have been permitted to sue for divorce in the "Land of the Rising Sun," but Mme. Aki-ko has revolted against an age-old custom, and her daring has caused considerable discussion. She was married at a very early age to a wealthy coal merchant whom she did not love, and who treated her in a manner that no Western woman would tolerate.

The majority of Japanese men and women are shocked at her bold step, and the women of the town of Fukushima, where Mme. Ito lived, have expressed their thankfulness that she has left the town, "as her action corrupts the good manners of other women there."

It is the generally accepted view in Japan that if women are allowed to bring actions for divorce the social life of the country will go to pieces.—Tit-Bits.

MOOSE ENDOWMENT BALL WEDNESDAY

Social Event to Aid Funds of Mooseheart

Judging from the interest being taken, and the number of tickets already sold, the Endowment Ball to be staged by the Loyal Order of Moose on Wednesday evening, promises to be a brilliant affair. It is to be held in the Alexandra Hall, and the musical programme is in the hands of Bro. K. C. Perry, and Tighe

& Wheeler's have charge of the catering. The proceeds are in aid of the orphan children of departed Moose and a similar event is being staged by every lodge of the order throughout the North American continent. At the supreme headquarters at Mooseheart there are about 1,100 children being fed, clothed and educated and in addition about 100 aged and infirm members of the order are assured of a haven for the remainder of their lives. The annual upkeep is in the neighborhood of $1,000,000. Mooseheart is recognized by the leading philanthropists as the finest institution of its kind in the civilized world. The ball is under the distinguished patronage of Bro. Hon. John Hart and Mrs. Hart, and Bro. H. C. Hall, K.C., and Mrs. Hall. The committee report that only a few tickets are now available and those intending to be present are asked to govern themselves accordingly. They may be obtained from the Music Department of D. Spencer Ltd., Tighe & Wheeler, and Bro. W. D. Taylor, 1307 Blanshard Street. A very capable committee have been working for some weeks past to make this affair a success, and the public is asked for their generous support.

AT THE END OF THE RAINBOW

By Nancibelle Hale

Another Fascinating Romance by the Authoress of "A Gamble in Beauty."

Laura glowed and her husband grinned. He was as quick-witted as good-humored. "Was it as bad as that?" he wanted to know. "You see, I sing for people because Laura expects it, and since it has to be got over sooner or later I usually do it sooner, so I can have the satisfaction of saying 'well, that's done.' And then it's kinder to the guest that way. That's particularly true after they've come more than once. Admit now, that the next time you're here it will be a relief when it is over. Of course, to-night it came as a total surprise." Margaret laughed and said the appropriate thing, then drifted into praise of Laura and her housekeeping accomplishments.

"Oh, yes, she's some busy little bee, all right," agreed her husband. First there is the boy to dress, then breakfast to get. From 9 until 10 she dusts; from 10 to 12 she assiduously makes and fries a large, crisp batch of crullers. The hour between that and her luncheon she devotes to herself by polishing the bathroom mirror and setting her bureau in order. Then she and Joe come into the kitchen and eat scraps from dinner the night before. Then she sews for Joe, darns socks, then dresses the youngster and takes him out for a walk while she's buying the cats for dinner. After she has sufficiently rested herself by playing ball with Joe she starts in to cook the dinner.

"What an accurate description—and from a man! You're observing as well as appreciative, Mr. Gerson. More often men can't for the life of them see what their wives are doing while they are downtown."

"That's why he helps me with the dishes," cut in Laura. "He says that's the only way he knows to make me settle long enough to understand that chairs were made not only to dust but also to sit on." Margaret lived through the day again as she sat by the window in her room at the hotel that night. It was the kind of home life she had always imagined ideal for herself—of course with a bit finer setting and minus the "Toreador" affair. Yet Laura's pride in her husband and his willingness to please her had softened that incident until it appeared almost beautiful. Margaret's life with John Baxter was, by comparison, a series of parties in hotels or studios of fellow artists, well sandwiched in with theatres and mad rides into the country for madder week-end parties. It had been all gaiety and swiftness and brilliancy.

John Baxter had loved her, to be sure, but she realized more and more that it was largely because she was gay and considered brilliant. It now seemed there was a certain tenderness lacking in his feeling for her—a tenderness such as Samuel Gerson felt for Laura. They were not always seeking friends to play with, to make life gay. They were sufficient in themselves.

Plenty of women in New York loved exactly the kind of life Margaret and Baxter had, and many more to whom the opportunity has not come would pay almost any price to be allowed one peep into that frothy, showy existence. But Margaret had acquired a trick of looking directly into the particular House of Married Life of which she had the most knowledge. She would look in at the windows, then walk around it, then step back and size up the whole structure, and she did not in the least like what she saw. The House was all right—presentable, modern, smart. But its foundations went no deeper than its surface, and the first ill Wind could easily blow the whole thing over. "And even now," mused Margaret, "I'm at least a million miles from where I started when I graduated from High School. After all, is there nothing in life for a woman but marrying whoever comes along and asks her?" Should she go back into the routine of the business world, for which she seemed not particularly well adapted, or should she marry Edward Clark, for instance, though to be sure she could probably marry some other man—some other man who asked her. She was in a savagely depressed mood and her anger seemed directed principally at social customs and the advantages men had over women. They could marry whoever they chose. A man tried to marry the woman he loved, and usually succeeded. But most women tried to love the man they married. Would she ever succeed in loving Edward Clark? Occasionally his company was pleasant and interesting, but married to him—she had always refused to take him seriously, and now, as she considered him from the standpoint of "till death do us part," she shuddered. "Why, it would be like selling my soul!" Yet somehow it seemed Fate had been showing her in the direction of Edward Clark for the past three years.

She felt ashamed of her resentment toward him. She could rail at Fate, if she liked, but Edward had always been fine in his dealings toward her. She had tried to tell herself that he did not love her, but had been forced to admit he did. In no other way could she account for his quiet, steady devotion, his apparent, though veiled, eagerness to see her whenever she was willing, without ever actually inflicting himself upon her.

It wasn't fear of the future—she felt very sure it would now be comparatively easy to earn her own living—but a sense of loneliness and the futility of it all, that was now causing her to speculate upon marriage with Edward. And before retiring she had decided that was the course for her to take. She was to lunch with him the next day. It would be very simple to encourage him to repeat his proposal. He would do so quietly, kindly, expecting to be refused.

CHAPTER VI.

She lay awake for hours, it seemed, tossing and feverish. Mentally she was running away from Edward for dear life, and as she ran from him, she bumped into all the marriageable men she knew in the hope that one of them would save her from the fate of marrying him. First she imagined herself married to one, then another, and in no instance did it seem a bit more attractive than becoming Clark's life partner.

Then a very strange thing happened. Suddenly she saw quite clearly the face of Paul Howe. And immediately her troubled soul found peace. Yes, he was the man! He would save her from this distasteful marriage. Relaxation and happiness, she fell into a quiet sleep. In her dreams she and Paul were again together, playing in the woods near Vinton. What a happy time they were having! They climbed over tall fences and wandered through fields and meadows—on and on they went. Once she stumbled and fell, and he hastened to her side. But she looked up smiling, in spite of the bruised arm. "Marry, you're a sport," he said. "I guess that's why I'm so crazy about you."

Then they sat down on a fallen tree and Margaret leaned her head against his shoulder, while he kissed her and stroked her hair. She was very happy, and it was wonderful to be again with Paul after all her troubles. They seemed in her dreams very vague, but she had a confused sense of chaos, followed by calm.

"Oh, Paul," she murmured. "I love you so!" The words were inarticulate but uttered aloud. She awoke and looking at the clock saw that it was very late. In a happy daze she dressed and went down to breakfast. (To be continued.)

Why fade at 30?

Youthful maturity may exert a charm which youth alone can't rival. And certainly no woman should allow her youthful freshness to fade just when the joy of living should be at its height.

Keep your school-girl complexion and you can forget the passing years. The woman with a fresh, radiant skin will always seem young.

How to keep it—this is simple, as Cleopatra could tell you. The secret lies in daily intelligent care which will make beauty life-long.

How Cleopatra kept young

Girlhood days had long passed when the beautiful Egyptian reached the height of her fame and loveliness. Her charm grew greater with the years.

She knew how to care for and keep the smooth, flawless complexion which makes the possessor seem ever young.

Her method—thorough cleansing with the soothing oils discovered in ancient Egypt. Whatever cosmetics this queen of beauty used, the foundation was a skin free from all injurious accumulations.

Why your face needs washing

Because the accumulation of dirt, oil and perspiration must be removed or they will ruin your skin. To let them collect in the pores is to invite complexion troubles.

Inevitably such deposits soon cause enlarged pores and coarse texture results. The dirt forms blackheads and carries infections which cause blotches.

The more powder you use to conceal this condition the worse it grows, for this only increases the clogging. Lotions and cold creams won't help—you must remove the cause.

Gentle cleansing with Palmolive will soon improve the condition, and don't be afraid to be thorough.

Massage the cosmetic lather into the skin so that it may remove every trace of injurious soil.

If your skin is dry, apply cold cream after cleansing. Oily skins won't require such applications.

Throat, neck, shoulders

Need the same beautifying cleansing, for complexion beauty doesn't stop with the face.

Bathe with Palmolive and keep your skin smooth and white. It is a luxury all can afford.

For with all its fineness, its mild, soothing qualities, its gentle cosmetic action, Palmolive isn't an expensive soap. Popularity keeps the price low.

Explaining price

This modest sum is possible through gigantic production which keeps the Palmolive factories working day and night and the importation of the bland mild oils in reducing volume.

Thus this finest facial soap, which if made in small quantities would cost at least 25 cents, is offered at the price of ordinary soap.

INTERFERENCE BY GOVERNMENT HAD PARALYSING EFFECT

Says Reckless Disregard For Principles of Commerce Hurts British Shipping

Demand made in the year 1921 by the overseas trade of the United Kingdom on the available ship carrying power was even less than in 1920, according to the report of the Liverpool Journal of Commerce.

In weight the imports were 32 per cent. below those dealt with in 1913, whilst the corresponding figures for 1920 showed only a decrease of 12 per cent. in the import and 50 per cent. on the export weight of 1913.

The members of the Liverpool Steam Ship Owners' Association owned at the end of the year last closed, 5,778,824 tons gross of steam shipping, which comprised upwards of 25 per cent. of the total British steam tonnage afloat; 33 per cent. of the total number of steam vessels of a speed of 12 knots and upwards; and 34 per cent. of the total number of steam vessels above 5,000 tons.

Consequences.
In part the report says: "The decrease in the weight of the total import traffic dealt with through all the ports of the United Kingdom, amounting to 16,700,000 tons below the figures of 1913, has meant not only a loss of employment for the ships and the port workers, and serious shortage in the nation's food supplies, but also shortage in the raw materials used in its industries. From these shortages have resulted the maintenance, far above pre-war level, of the cost of food and of raw material; and thereby the cost of the production of manufactures and coal, and of the operation of transport and shipping services, has been maintained at a level which makes it impossible to sell freely in the markets of the world. Unemployment has been the inevitable result, and the purchasing power of the consumers in this country has decreased in spite of the high rate of nominal wage. In part the gravity of the position has been concealed, for the time being, by the distribution of State grants amongst the unemployed; but that relief is only obtained by borrowing on the credit of the nation's future earnings, that is by anticipating the food of the future.

Disastrous Year.
"The year has been a disastrous one, but it is to be hoped that it has seen almost the end of State interference, based on political considerations, and of departmental control which exercised with reckless disregard to all principles of commerce, has done so much to check the free flow of the world to pay for the food we must have if we are not to starve. Few, if any, of the countries from which we obtain that food are under any such compulsion to buy our manufactures and coal. We have found to our cost that such countries can dispense even with our coal, for although both our coal and our manufactures may be necessary for their comfort and prosperity; they are not necessary for their existence. We must, therefore, be able and willing to place our manufactures and coal on the markets of the world at prices which those markets are willing and able to pay, for neither State organization, nor the efforts of individual traders, nor of organizations of traders or producers, can force our sales in foreign countries. We have to find and satisfy the individual buyers, and it is the price which we obtain from such buyers which ultimately controls our imports and, therefore, the standards of living for all in this country.

High Taxation.
"The past year has made manifest that neither the reparations payable under the Peace Treaty, nor State duties, are safeguards against unemployment, poverty, and hardship. The Government has realized that taxation must be reduced, as it is overwhelming and paralyzing industry but the Government has yet to bring national expenditure within supportable limits. The nation has realized that its prosperity depends on work, but it has still to realize that the utmost return it can receive for that work must be limited by the purchasing power of the consumers in this country and abroad.

"The Government still hesitates to recognize the fact emphasized by the Shipping Industry in 1917: 'Retribution for even crimes committed against humanity must be direct and immediate; it cannot control the commercial policy of the Empire, for all international trade must be based on the benefits to be derived by all the nations concerned, and its maintenance is inconsistent with the policy of imperialism.'

"Other nations have to realize that if they would sell their goods also, as they can only be paid in the commodities or the services that the buyers are able to offer in exchange. "The sea is free, but the Governments are blocking the flow of traffic through the ports by repatriation demands, prohibitions, and tariffs, and they are thereby hampering commerce as effectively as the submarines."

JAPANESE SEAMEN OF MANILA WORKED CARGO AT HONGKONG

O. S. K. Ship Was Not Delayed by Strike Trouble at China Port

Capt. Y. Somekawa, master of the Japanese liner Manila Maru, marshaled his crew as stevedores when at Hongkong early in February and this action forestalled any delay that might have resulted as a result of the strike at the China port. The master of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner, in port to-day, learned with interest of the reported settlement of the seamen's strike, which for several weeks past has seriously affected Oriental shipping at the port of Hongkong. The shipowners, it is said, have been forced to grant the seamen's demands.

The Manila Maru was at Hongkong, but one day and her freight for that port was handled entirely by the Japanese crew.

Made Port To-day.

The Manila Maru arrived in port this morning from Hongkong, Shanghai, Kobe and Yokohama, operating right on her regular schedule. She brought in 78 passengers, including 13 cabin, all aboard being of Japanese nationality. Twenty-nine Japanese stevedore passengers disembarked here. The Manila Maru was fourteen days crossing the Pacific and the passage was devoid of any outstanding incident. Fair weather was experienced and the ship overcame well in speed. A total of 2,000 tons of cargo was stored in the holds of the Japanese liner. The raw silk freight amounted to 1,373 bales. The more important items on the ship's manifest were: 1,298 bales of grass rugs, 750 cases of porcelain, 800 tons of wood oil in bulk, 500 packages of peanuts, 414 packages of walnut meat, 667 packages of hemp seed, 140 cases of silk goods and 1,373 bales of raw silk. The Manila Maru left here at 11 o'clock for Seattle.

The first big movement of Menominee from Southern Manitoba to Mexico left Minneapolis via the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway on March 2, routed to the Mexican border by way of Kansas City, according to advices received by F. O. Finn, local agent for the C. M. and St. P. line.

There were approximately 125 people in the party, together with about 25 carloads of household effects.

RUTH ALEXANDER DUE THIS MONTH

Seattle, March 7.—En route to Seattle from New York on her first voyage since being reconditioned for the coastwise service of the Pacific Steamship Company, the steamship Ruth Alexander is now en route up the Pacific Coast from the Panama Canal, and is expected to reach San Pedro next Friday.

On sailing from New York the big ship had 113 passengers for the Pacific Coast, seventy-two of whom were booked through to this port, and this number was enhanced by the addition of six more Seattle-bound passengers who boarded the vessel at Havana, and two additional for Seattle and a similar number for San Francisco, who took passage as baggage on the Seattle. The Ruth Alexander called at Balboa, Canal Zone.

Included in the list are the following Seattle residents who boarded the liner at New York: Mrs. N. E. Cousins, wife of Capt. N. E. Cousins, master of the vessel; Capt. and Mrs. R. G. Graham; Mrs. Walter Eyre, wife of the Seattle Engineer; Miss Gladys McIntyre, Ray M. Hunt, B. R. Albion, A. Pollack and Mrs. Hattie W. McKay.

Among the other passengers aboard the vessel who are coming to Seattle are Alfred E. Smith, president of the Vitagraph Company of America, and Mrs. Smith; B. B. Coyne, vice-president of the banking and brokerage firm of Logan & Bryan; Mrs. James K. McGow, wife of the president of the Braden Copper Corporation, and Charles Smith, a banker of Ontario, N. Y.

Three men prominent in literary circles of the country, after missing the liner on her departure from New York, hastened to Key West by train and by airplane to Havana managed to catch the vessel. The three men are Robert E. Sherwood, a contributor to Life; James Lee, a magazine illustrator; and Sidney F. Howard, playwright and author. They are booked only as far as Los Angeles.

The Ruth Alexander is due here March 15.

WORK STARTED ON S.S. COWICHAN AT ESQUIMALT PLANT

Alterations to Union Vessel Now at Yarrow's Will Occupy Ten Days

Ten days will be occupied by Yarrow's, Ltd., in effecting alterations to the coastwise steamship Cowichan, of the Union Steamship Company's fleet, which arrived at Lang Cove last evening from Vancouver.

Some interior remodeling is to be done and more convenient arrangements are being made for the handling of baggage and freight. The work includes the cutting of a new hatch through to the freight deck and the installation of a couple of steam hoists.

The tanker Talaralt, of the Imperial Oil Company, is due at Yarrow's very shortly to be overhauled before she is sent around to the Atlantic in tow.

The C. G. M. M. freighter Canadian Prospector, coming from San Francisco, is expected to reach Esquimalt to-morrow to be overhauled before going on berth to load for her next voyage to the Far East.

Repairs to the freighter Beaulieu, which is being rapidly completed and the ship will get away this week-end for the Orient.

The work of restoring and re-fitting her deck lumber is being done by the Victoria and Vancouver Stevedoring Company.

LUCKENBACH LINE WILL ADD VESSELS TO COAST FLEET

San Francisco, March 7.—Plans of the Luckenbach Line for the present season, based on the expectation of an unprecedented movement of Pacific Coast trade, are being carried out. The line is planning to add to its fleet of intercoastal sailings up to one every four days, and not less than one steamer a week, according to H. C. Cantelero, vice-president of the line, who here assumed active charge of Luckenbach affairs on the Pacific Coast.

The Luckenbach Line moved March 1 from their present quarters in the Merchants' Exchange Building to the ground floor location at 201 California Street.

"The Luckenbach Lines contemplate the addition of more tonnage to the regular intercoastal service," said Mr. Cantelero upon his arrival from New York, where he had been in conference with officials of the company since becoming general Pacific Coast manager February 1. After his advent here, J. L. Luckenbach, vice-president of the company, returned to New York.

"The merchandise stocks in the East are practically exhausted," he said. "There is virtually no surplus of canned goods and dried fruits there and neither is there much carry-over stock here. As a result, we look for an early movement of Pacific Coast products to the Atlantic, with shipments being made almost as fast as the merchandise is produced."

EXTRADITION CASE WAS HEARD TO-DAY

Key West, Fla., March 7.—Postponement until to-day of a hearing before Federal Commissioner Knowles on the British request for extradition of V. Brackelbush, mate of the British steamship Lewis Brothers, on a charge of murdering the vessel's master, Captain H. Chute, on the high seas, was the only development yesterday in the case, which has now simmered down apparently to the question of whether an American citizen will be turned over to the British for trial because of an alleged crime on the high seas under the British flag against a British subject.

The British Government is seeking also the extradition of five other members of the crew of the Lewis Brothers, two as accessories and three as material witnesses in the case, but because of their foreign citizenship commissioner Knowles has announced he has no jurisdiction in their case.

BIG CONTRACT PLACED FOR DIESEL ENGINES

Bethlehem Plant Will Build Diesels Valued $7,000,000 on This Coast

That big times are in store for Diesel engine building activity, and that the plants of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation especially, on the Pacific Coast will be humming with this activity, is apparent with the announcement of the corporation on this coast, says Shipping Register, of San Francisco from a conference with Charles M. Schwab in New York, bringing with him orders for Diesel engines which will amount to $7,000,000, with more to follow.

The Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation has secured orders for Diesel engines amounting to $15,000,000. Half of these orders will be filled in Pacific Coast plants of the corporation at Los Angeles, San Francisco, Alameda and San Pedro. Schwab, the corporation head and one of the country's foremost industrial leaders, has predicted a great future for Diesel engine and is one of its most ardent advocates. He believes that eventually all ocean steamers will be equipped with this type of engine, and that the Diesel engine operation. The Bethlehem Corporation on the Pacific Coast has in F. E. Nitzel a Diesel engine expert of wide recognition and Mr. Nitzel will have supervision of the construction work on the engines to be built by the corporation in the plants on this coast.

KIWANIANS WILL WORK TO DIMINISH DRUG TRAFFIC EVIL

Comprehensive Report Offers Suggestions

Will Make Campaign Dominion Wide in Scope

The anti-drug campaign in British Columbia was advanced a further stage to-day by the unanimous endorsement of the Kiwanians assembled at luncheon of a full report of the anti-drug committee, presented by Dr. Howard Miller, chairman of that committee. The club voted to prosecute the matter to the fullest extent, and to make it nation wide, and even international in scope through the medium of Kiwanis Clubs.

The report follows:

Drug Use Widespread.

Your committee has given the question of the drug traffic serious consideration and investigation and begs to present the following report:

1. There is in our city and Province a widespread use of drugs, not confined to any one class or age.
2. Investigation shows that the amount of drugs consumed and the number of addicts is growing.
3. That there appears to be a drug ring disseminating the material.
4. That the penalties for drug traffickers and users is not a sufficient deterrent to their machinations.
5. That strong means be taken immediately to combat the traffic.

There are two methods of procedure:

1. Representations to Provincial and Federal Governments to make penalties more severe, jail without the option of a fine, lashes and deportation of aliens convicted.
2. A widespread publicity campaign along educational lines, in order to awaken communities fully to the extent of the traffic, and to put parents and others on guard against the various pitfalls connected therewith.

Favor Mass Meeting.

The committee recommends to the club that these be carried out in the following manner:

1. That this club enlist the co-operation of all service clubs in this city to hold a mass meeting at a time and place to be arranged, at which representative speakers will outline the ravages of the traffic.
2. That we ask the newspapers of this city to co-operate by giving as much publicity as possible to this campaign.
3. That we present our resolutions to every Kiwanis Club of Canada and request them to emulate our efforts in their respective communities.
4. That each Kiwanis Club of Canada memorialize its local legislative members acquainting them with the conditions, and enlisting their support to bring about the necessary change in the "Narcotic Act."
5. That we make this an international movement, and asking the support of Kiwanis International and through them the co-operation of every Kiwanis Club of the United States.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

(Signed)
HOWARD MILLER, Chairman.
MARK W. GRAHAM, KENNETH FERGUSON.

SICKNESS INCREASES MISERY OF NEEDY

Friendly Help Asks For Jam, Men's Boots and Clothes

The monthly meeting of the Friendly Help Association was held at the rooms in the Market Building this morning, sixteen members being present. Mrs. Grant presided.

The secretary reported that 168 persons were given assistance during the month of February, a large number of whom were new cases.

It was reported that there has been a very heavy drain on the funds and supplies of the association during the past month on account of the continued cold weather and the prevalence of influenza and other sickness, and the association would be most thankful for donations of all kinds especially jam, as the children are continually asking for it and the supply is hard to come by. Clothing of all kinds is also needed, especially clothing for men and working boots.

The question of the nomination of a new president of the Local Council of Women was brought before the meeting on account of the resignation of Mrs. Graves, and Mrs. Schofield was the unanimous choice of the association. Representatives were appointed to attend the meeting of the Social Service Committee to be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday, March 15.

function to-morrow. Walter Masuire announced a Kiwanis team for relay race at the Armory to-morrow, and asked for further football adherents for the forthcoming match with the Victoria Club shortly. Numerous guests were entertained at the luncheon to-day.

Little Progress ON CITY BUDGET

The City Council started work on its annual estimates yesterday afternoon, but made practically no progress. Another meeting will be held this week, probably to-morrow when the Mayor and Aldermen will attempt to dispose of the estimates of several city departments. Yesterday's meeting was hampered by the lack of figures showing last year's estimates as compared with the draft estimates for this year.

The grant to the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, which probably will be the most debated item in the annual budget, was not considered yesterday. The Bureau's request for a grant has been endorsed by the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and Gyro Club.

G. W. V. A. Meeting.—Members of the executive of the G. W. V. A. have been called to a special meeting at 7 o'clock to-night, W. G. Stone, treasurer, announced this afternoon.

SAYS CLUBS HAVE UNLIMITED POWER FOR GOOD

Rev. W. G. Wilson Addresses Kiwanians in Spirited Discourse

In a brief but forceful address to the Kiwanis Club this afternoon, the Rev. W. G. Wilson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, congratulated the Club on its share in the anti-drug campaign, and pointed out opportunities for service in organizations of a similar nature.

Kiwanis, and similar movements, were peculiar to the present age, while their growth had been world-wide and phenomenal in extent, he said. They had unlimited power for good, but were apt to be criticized on the basis that they represented only a slight percentage of every class, and were not good, to lose sight of the larger issues, Mr. Wilson pointed out.

Such movements as the anti-drug campaign, prosecuted individually through the members of the Club, and collectively by the members of all Kiwanis Clubs in existence, were the real basis of service, working at full pressure for the alleviation of the more general and widespread ill of civilization. The preservation of the law, and the rigid adherence to all moral and legal tenets were true fields for Kiwanis influence, stated the speaker, who characterized the world as in a state where the anarchical tendencies were dangerously prevalent, and in immediate need of the spreading of the principles of sanity and respect of the law.

Such Clubs as Kiwanis held unlimited power for good, and that power should be ever energized along active lines for the good of the community, and the country as a whole, concluded the speaker. Mr. Wilson was accorded a hearty ovation at the conclusion of his brief address.

Miss Eva Hart delighted the Club to-day with two engaging numbers, charming violin. A. E. Foreman, as chairman of the entertainment committee, presided.

J. B. Clearhue won the attendance prize, limited today to the unmarried men of the Club, four in number. The prize was a contract or the part of the married members to find a suitable fiancée for the winner of the attendance prize, and an offer to pay the marriage license for such "well conducted courtship" within the period of the next year. Much merriment was created by the novel offer.

A team of Kiwanians volunteered their services for the tree planting ceremony at the Memorial Avenue

Mrs. Samuel Ward, Millersdale, Sask., writes:—"I feel that I must write to you before another day passes I am so happy and so grateful to your splendid medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters, for after an illness of five years I am better."

"I had stomach trouble so bad, I could not bear the smell or taste of food of any kind, and got so thin and weak I could not get work. I had four doctors attend me, but they did me no good. I was in no pain, but felt so ill at times, I thought I would die. In fact, all after the first two days I must say I began to feel better, and after the first bottle I felt so much better I went out a little every day, but could not go alone I was so weak, but I soon got so I could walk and eat, and have got quite stout."

"I am nearly seventy years of age and I feel better than I have for years, and can now do all my household work."

"You may make use of this letter if you wish, as it may be the means of making others as well and as happy as I am."

ELECTORS HEAR

TWO MINISTERS

Hon. J. H. King Campaigning

in East Kootenay

Fernie, B. C., March 7.—Hon. J. H.

King, Federal Minister of Public

Works, and Hon. James Murdock,

Minister of Labor, addressed a meeting last night at Natal in the former's interests.

Mr. Murdock said he had represented Labor ever since he could remember, and would always fight for the achievement of just and equitable ambitions and desires. He emphasized that labor in this section,

as in many other sections of Canada,

must eradicate that unsound logic that there was over-production in Canada.

Canada, he said, could market

everything she had, provided the cost of production and cost of conveying

it to market was not too prohibitive.

Returned Men.

Mr. Murdock, reviewed the unemployment situation. He said that within a few weeks the Government would announce that it was undertaking a thorough investigation of the question as to whether the country should not do more on behalf of its returned men.

The Minister of Labor suggested it was unfortunate that Mr. King was being opposed. "I can not believe there is any serious disposition on the part of citizens of East Kootenay to indicate by their votes that they don't want British Columbia, and that they don't want East Kootenay directly represented in the Cabinet of Canada at this, one of the most critical periods in Canadian history," said

Mr. Murdock.

PAID BOUNTY ON CATERPILLAR RINGS

New Westminster Anticipates 48,000,000 Less Caterpillars

Now that gardening is the chief topic in the office, its kindred subject, the tent caterpillar, is also to the fore. There are some who claim that Victoria should be fairly free of pests this season owing to the severity of the winter, and particularly in the case of those who had their soil turned over last fall, it should be safe to say that pests have been decimated by the frost.

The tent caterpillar is always an interesting subject to the gardener. In some cases it is more than interesting. It is claimed by some experts that, in the case of harmful germs, the tent caterpillar has a horde of enemies to fight against, human, unhuman and otherwise.

At this time of the year the pest is apparent in its pre-natal stage. New Westminster, where the pest has been very destructive in recent years, had an amusing experience in connection with the combatting of the pest in its early or "ring" stage. An appropriation of $100 was made which was to be paid out at the rate of half a cent a ring to those industrious people, children included, who would bring in branches with caterpillar rings. A few mornings after the scheme was instituted over $240 had been paid out in such bounties, the $100 having proved sadly inadequate.

Depots were established, one at the fire hall, where incinerating facilities were handy. One man counted the twigs as the queues of children brought them in, and another issued the certificates which were made payable at the City Treasurer's office.

Some boys brought in as many as 1,100 and 1,400 rings. So surprised were the city officials with the result of the move they had instigated that it was necessary to call a "hurry-up" meeting of the City Council to discuss the financial aspect of the matter. Last year $170 was spent by New Westminster Council in a futile attempt to check the pest when it was too late.

Estimating that the rings average 500 caterpillars each, the $240 expended by the Westminster Council represents 48,000,000 caterpillars that will never eat a leaf.

It has been suggested that such a scheme might profitably be inaugurated in Victoria and the surrounding district.

PRAIRIE FARMERS SEEK B. C. JOBLESS

Saskatchewan Alone Wants 3,500 Men

Work For All to Open Up End of March

If the unemployed of British Columbia, estimated at between 5,000 and 6,000, with 3,000 in Vancouver, take advantage of the offer of T. M. Molloy, Commissioner of Labor and Industries for the Government of Saskatchewan, who arrived on the coast a few days ago, the majority of them will find work towards the end of this month or during the first week in April.

Mr. Molloy says that the farmers of his province will require about 3,500 men in the Spring seeding operations and that practically all of these men can be found work on the prairie province for the next eight months. Wages will not be as high as last year, running about $40 a month and board, with, of course, the current higher wage paid during the harvesting season. Those on the ground early will have the best selection of these harvesting jobs, he assures.

The commissioner reports that the class of men who left B. C. last Summer for the prairies was quite satisfactory to the farmers, and he would be glad to secure all the extra help this Spring from this Province. The question of transportation looms largely in the matter of sending unemployed from here. As yet no decision has been reached by the employment office in regard to this question. Vancouver city authorities are anxious to send a large number of men from the Hastings Park camp.

Seventeen municipalities in British Columbia are now under the Federal relief scheme. Work so far is slow in opening up, owing to the extremely cold weather throughout the Province. About 300 men will be required shortly for Fernie in lumbering and railway employment. Labor bureau officials say that men will be well advised to stay away from there, however, until actually needed.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Large Deal.
One of the largest mining deals in the Lillooet district in some time was concluded last week, when Jos. Tretheway and associates bonded the Taylor claim on Iron Creek, a tributary to Whitewater Lake. The price is understood to be in the neighborhood of $250,000, and a substantial cash payment was made. The new property will start development work shortly.

The property was located about two years ago by E. J. Taylor, a prospector, on his return from overseas, and was the first important discovery in that district in recent years. It is a quartz proposition, carrying tellurides.

The deal was arranged by William Gray, who retired on February 28 as secretary of the Chamber of Mines to go into business as a mining broker. Mr. Tretheway is one of the best-known mining and ranching men in British Columbia. He was interested in the great silver discoveries in Cobalt.

Indian Mines.
G. D. B. Turner and associates have recently acquired control of the Indian Mines, Limited, and advance claims, and will commence active development on or about March 15, says The Portland Canal News.

The Indian is one of the old properties in the district, and consists of four claims, situated in the Salmon River valley, on the right bank of the river, about 10 miles from the Premier mine. Considerable work was done on the property some years ago by the Turner brothers, who were heavily interested. Later a company was incorporated, and some 600 to 700 feet of underground work was done, in addition to extensive surface work. Good camps were also established and everything in this regard is in readiness and very little delay will be experienced before real development will commence.

The work so far done shows a good vein from 6 to 14 feet wide with gold and silver values, and in places considerable galena. The latter is uniformly low in silver values.

AUTHOR'S ASSOCIATION

Officers Are Chosen For the Victoria Branch

The Victoria branch of the Canadian Author's Association has now a membership of 39. Last evening at the annual meeting the following officers were chosen: chairman, Sheldon Williams; vice-chairman, Gordon Smith; treasurer, Donald A. Fraser; secretary, Mrs. Dorothy M. Bishop; executive, N. de B. Lugin, Miss Eugenie Perry, Colonel Fick, C. Pemberton, Major Longstaff, W. E. Walsh and Major Bullock-Webster.

AMERICAN LOAN TO LIBERIA

Washington, March 7.—There is nothing in the terms of the agreement under which the United States will loan $5,000,000 to Liberia which would serve to extend American authority over that country, officials here declared when their attention was called to press dispatches from Paris charging that Liberia would be virtually made an American colony.

The proposed loan, it was pointed out, would be used largely to repay advances made by French and British financiers.

Anaemia

Thin, watery blood is no more nourishing than thin, watery milk—skim milk.

But you can soon enrich thin blood, overcome the anaemic condition and build up the whole system by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. F. G. Simmons, 42 Curtis St., Brantford, Ont., writes:

"For about eight years I suffered from anaemia. My circulation was poor, my gums and lips were pale, and my hands and feet were always cold. I was nervous and unable to sleep well. I had frequent headaches, seemed restless and easily worried or irritated. There was a buzzing sound in my ears. Indigestion was also one of my complaints, and I often was attacked by weak spells. I went to a doctor, who told me I was anaemic, but as I did not get any better I decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after the first box I felt brighter and my headaches completely disappeared. I continued using the Nerve Food for quite a while. I am quite well now, and cheerfully and gratefully recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to people suffering as I did before I used this splendid medicine."

FIGHTING AGAINST NARCOTIC EVIL

American State Governors Met in Washington

Portland, Ore., March 7.—A campaign directed against narcotics was launched at the conference of Governors called by Governor Olcott of this state.

Assembled in the City Council chamber were Governor Olcott, of Oregon and Governor Hart, of California, and Governor Davis, of Idaho. In addition there were federal, state, county and city officials, as well as club women and many citizens.

Resolutions were adopted covering all phases of the situation.

A delegation of representatives of Western officialdom will be organized, it was decided, to travel to Washington and in person appear before representatives in Congress to urge the enacting of laws which will hit at the manufacture of narcotics, their importation and exportation to and from the United States, and their shipment in bond through the United States by other countries.

A memorial addressed to President Harding, as well as to Congress, urges that some action be taken whereby the universal unlawful sale of narcotics can be halted.

FIVE DELEGATES OF FRANCE AT GENOA MEETING

Paris, March 7.—The French Government will have five representatives at the opening of the Genoa Economic Conference, April 10, one of whom is likely to be Premier Poincaré himself, but for a few days only.

The present French Government feels it was unfair that the French delegation as an entity could not remain at Washington throughout the conference, and the limitation of armaments, and an endeavor will be made to avoid a similar situation at Genoa. The delegates will be chosen from among prominent French statesmen holding full plenipotentiary powers, but whose public duties do not necessitate their presence in Paris during the period of two or three months which, in French opinion, will be the duration of the conference. The French experts will be ready with their proposals in about two weeks' time, allowing of a sufficient period for the Premier to study the various points with the members of the delegation before they depart for Genoa.

The meeting of the Finance Ministers of France, Great Britain, Italy and Belgium on March 3, will be merely for discussing the distribution among the Allied Powers of the reparations payments already made by Germany.

AMERICANS WILL DEVELOP OIL FIELDS OF NICARAGUA

Okmulgee, Okla., March 7.—Development of the petroleum and natural gas resources of Nicaragua by oil men of the United States is assured as the result of the granting of an oil lease concessions covering practically the entire areas of Nicaragua to W. R. Alexander, of Okmulgee and Kansas City and associates, according to an announcement here by Alexander.

The lease, granted for forty years by the Nicaraguan Government, covers about 49,200 square miles, and is considered a big achievement for American oil interests. Mr. Alexander said, as several foreign oil men had entered bids.

Vera Gordon, the "mother of Humoresque" fame, has given up her vaudeville tour in the West to make another Fanny Hurst story under the direction of Frank Borzage.

HEYLAND CUP FOR RUGBY CHAMPIONS

Trophy Presented in Memory of Late Rugby Player Will Go to J.B.A.A. Fifteen

In memory of her son, Domenico McNaughton Heyland, one of the finest wing three-quarters this province ever developed, and who recently passed away, Mrs. R. Heyland, of 1243 Richardson Street, has presented a handsome cup for competition among the intermediate rugby teams of this city.

The Victoria Rugby Union has accepted the trophy, which is now on exhibition in the window of W. H. Wilkerson, Government Street. It is one of the finest cups that has been put up for competition among rugby teams in this city. It will be presented to the J. B. A. A., which this year won the intermediate championship.

"Don" as the late lugger was familiarly known, played with local teams and his last appearance was with the Victoria Rugby Union. He went overseas with the First Contingent and while in the trenches contracted the sickness which ultimately led to his demise.

As long as rugby is played in Victoria Don's memory will be perpetuated by the beautiful cup which has been presented by his mother.

Last Game Here March 13.

The Centrals won the senior league in Vancouver and the Bays were victorious here. The Bays are getting together a strong team with which they hope to lift the Rousell Cup.

DICKIE KERR HOLDS OUT ON WHITE SOX

Chicago, March 7.—The failure of Dick Kerr, the diminutive pitcher of the Chicago White Sox to report at Sequin, Tex., the training camp, and sign his contract is said to be causing the club officials and Manager Gleason much concern. It was reported last night that Harry Grabner, secretary of the club, was en route to confer with Kerr who is said to be holding out for an increase in salary. Kerr's home is in Paris, Texas.

Kerr is one of the few members of the Chicago Americans who survived the World's series investigation of 1919 without having his character or record blemished.

Vancouver and Regina Are Champions Meet in Play-Off To-morrow Night

Millionaires Defeated Seattle in Thrilling Game by 1-0—Jack Adams Skipped Through for Lone Tally and Crowd Nearly Went Insane With Joy—Called "Greatest Game of Season"

Vancouver, March 7.—Gathering up a loose puck near the Seattle blue line, skirting his way around three Seattle players and planting the disc behind "Hap" Holmes fifteen seconds before the finish of the second period, Jack Adams, Vancouver centre, helped the Millionaires to their second consecutive championship and their fourth in seven seasons. Last night, the champions turning in a 1-0 victory over Seattle in the most widely exciting puck duel of the season.

It was the Millionaires' second straight win over Seattle in the 1921-22 play-off and the score was exactly the same as registered in the Sound City last Friday, the total count on the round being 2-0. Cook breezed through unassisted for the lone counter at Seattle, and last night it fell to Adams' lot to come through after the teams had battled through one scoreless session and over 19 minutes of the second stanza. Jawn got the counter unassisted. It was one of the most brilliant individual feats witnessed at the arena this season, and while the Mets fought desperately to climb into the running and the Millionaires just as furiously to retain their lead, no further scoring resulted and scenes of wild excitement the Millionaires romped off the pond championships for the second season in a row.

A Wild Scene.
Probably on no other occasion has such a wildly enthusiastic demonstration followed the scoring of a goal, such as came after Adams' thrilling play. Fans rose en masse and cheered the player to the echo. The great arena rocked with the deafening roar of the happy multitude. It was the turning point in the game. Fans hailed out noise-makers of every description, hats went into the air and for the next few minutes one heard the arena rock under a salvo of acclamations and shouts. The crowd was one of the largest and most enthusiastic and demonstrative that has attended a game in a long time. It was like old times to see the turmoil that arose as one thrilling play followed another but it was when Adams notched his goal that pandemonium broke loose. That was the sort of thing the crowd wanted—a goal in a pinch in a titanic mix where every point counted—and it yelled its collective head off in appreciation that came from the heart as well as the lungs. From then until the finish there was no holding the spectators. They whooped it up at every turn. Players on both teams got an ovation for every good play cashed in. It was not a partisan throng. The Mets' good plays came in for a generous share of the applause but the Millionaires undoubtedly got the biggest reception because their producer perhaps a little more action.

Ready for Regina.
With the championship tucked away for another year, Vancouver players are now in line for more honors. To-morrow at the Denman Street plant the Millionaires go up against the Regina Capitals, who last night won the prairie championship by defeating Edmonton. The Caps, probably the best team in the west, have played about seven in nine days, are due on the coast to-morrow morning, being scheduled to oppose the Millionaires Wednesday. The teams play games, one here, the other in Regina. The winners go on to the east for the world's series.

Dick Irvin, former Portland star, when the Rosebuds were in the P. C. H. A. comes with the Caps. So, too, does Bill Adams, brother of Jack, and who filled the utility role with Vancouver last year. To-morrow's game will be played under coast rules with Mickey Igo refereeing. The game on the prairies, set for Saturday, will be played under the W. C. L. code.

"Chick" Evans One of States' Best Golfers, May Play Here

"Chick" Evans, one of the foremost amateur golf players in the world, will more than likely have his entry in for the Pacific Northwest amateur golf championship, which is to be decided at the Colwood golf links during the week June 5-10.

Evans won the United States amateur championship in 1920 and for many years he has always been one of the main contenders for the honors. As an authority on the game he has few equals and his articles on "Green and Fairway" have attracted much notice.

Evans' appearance in the championship would add considerable interest to the outcome. It would give golfers in this section of the country a chance to see how their game would look alongside that of a former champion.

Dr. Paul Hunter, California State amateur champion, is also coming to play at Colwood during the tournament. Many other notables in the old world are considering including Victoria in their summer golfing tour.

Regina Defeated Edmonton by 2-1 in Fast Contest—Capitals Were All Over Eskimos and They Won Unstinted Praise for the Fact That They Played Five Games in Six Days

Edmonton, March 7.—Regina Capitals won a thoroughly earned victory over the Edmonton Eskimos last night by a score of two to one, and now hold the championship of the Western Canadian Hockey League. They left last night for the coast to meet Vancouver Wednesday in the first game of the Stanley Cup elimination series.

Considering that the Regina team has played five games in the last six days, their performance last night was a remarkable one. They did not appear to be a bit fagged and throughout the game maintained a fast but steady pace.

Edmonton Played Poorly. The Eskimos, with the exception of Winkler, played poorly. During the first period Winkler gave a marvelous exhibition of goal-tending, saving the home club at least five times after the defence had been completely beaten.

Neither team scored in the first period but in the second the visitors cut loose with some fast play and scored both their goals. Irvin got the first and Hay the second. Edmonton tried to come back in the last period and managed to squeeze in one goal, which came from Keats' stick.

The teams were as follows: The following is the line-up of last night's game: Position. Regina. Edmonton. Goal. .... Laird. Simpson. Defence. .... Traub. Gillespie. Defence. .... Moran. Keats. Centre. .... Irvin. Gagne. Wing. .... Sparrow. Arbour. Wing. .... Hay. Trapp. Forward. .... McNeill. Morrison. Forward. .... Battell. Maiz. Forward. .... Adams. Bostrum. Forward. .... Anderson.

MABEL NORMAND IN EMOTIONAL FILM

Screen Favorite Is Seen at the Royal in "Molly O"

It is a varied programme that is being offered at the Royal Victoria Theatre all this week. There is a feature comedy equal to anything in the mirth provoking line that has ever been offered to the public. It is a picture of a love story as sweet and pure as anything that has ever been written. It is an emotional dramatic offering that in some scenes transcends the best that has ever been put on the screen. And it is a melodrama in which the villains are confounded, in which the hero licks a villain bare-handed, and which concludes with a thrilling aeroplane chase after a fleeing blimp. These are all combined into the feature of the programme "Molly O," the Associated First National Pictures attraction produced by Mack Sennett and starring Mabel Normand. Because the action runs from broad comedy to the deepest pathos, and from a supper in the tenements to a grand ball in the most fashionable hotel in the city, and because none of the good characters are wholly angels,

AMUSEMENTS TO-DAY

Royal—"Molly O."
Dominion—"Her Husband's Trade Mark."
Capitol—"Forever."
Variety—"Riders of the Dawn."
Columbia—"Not Guilty."

It is the most human story that has found its way to the screen in many months. Miss Normand easily carries away the star share of commendations but it is chiefly because she has the greatest variety to do, for every player, and there are many of them, establishes a high mark for histrionic ability. Jack Mulhall makes a really handsome lover, and as a vamp Jacqueline Logan establishes a new and more pleasant style. George Nichols as Tim O'Dair and Anna Hernandez as Mrs. O'Dair portray a married couple whose counterparts can be found almost anywhere. Albert Hackett, Eddie Gribbon, Ben Dealy, Gloria Davenport, Carl Stockdale and Eugene Bessner are others in the big cast that deserve mention for the agreeable performances.

CAPITOL

George Fawcett, who did such excellent work in Paramount's picture of Sir J. M. Barrie's "Sentimental Tommy," has a prominent role in George Fitzmaurice's production of "Forever," which will be shown at the Capitol Theatre this week. Mr. Fawcett plays the part of the kindly old gentleman, "Major Duquesnois." With Elsie Ferguson and Wallace Reid co-starring in the picture, the cast includes such well known players as Elliott Dexter, Montagu Love and Dolores Costello, Paul McAllister and other noted players.

VARIETY

The beautiful photography, lighting and scenic effects of "Riders of the Dawn," photoplay of the famous Zane Grey novel, "The Desert of Wheat," which is the attraction at the Variety Theatre, is credited to the noted photographer and physicist, E. J. Vallejo. Mr. Vallejo, inventor of the color screen, vignette soft-focus effects and other improvements in motion photography, is the best perfecting of all—a double lens that will give twice the appearance depth now seen on the screen.

COLUMBIA

Many of the scenes for Sidney A. Franklin's independent production, "Not Guilty," which is now showing at the Columbia Theatre, were filmed at California's famous winter resort, Del Monte. The popular Harold MacGrath story has this popular wintering place for a part of its locale and Sylvia Breamer, Richard Dix and the other leading players in the cast prevailed upon Director Franklin actually to film the scenes where the story was laid. Their excuse was that they were great believers in realism; but when they returned to their Hollywood studio Franklin remarked that every time he had occasion to need Miss Breamer for a scene it was necessary to dispatch a messenger to the Del Monte golf course. Whereupon Miss Breamer reminded the youthful director that she was playing the role of a wealthy young Miss Hugu Love and that it was necessary for her to acquire the proper atmosphere; so she took her golf clubs along.

H. C. Witwer, author of "The Leather Pushers," which is now being produced by Herbert L. Messmore president of the Knickerbocker Photoplay Corporation for Universal, is also the author of "The Shooting Stars," now appearing serially in Collier's Weekly which will be filmed by the same company as soon as the present series is completed. Reginald Denny, who is starring in "The Leather Pushers," will be the featured player.

NEW APARTMENT HOUSE IN JAMES BAY

Victoria's newest apartment house, located in the James Bay section of the city, has just been completed. Coral Court, as it is known, stands on a high elevation on Simcoe Street, and contains twelve suites, each offering a splendid view of the Straits, the City, and adjacent mountains. The large residence on the former Foster Estate has been completely rebuilt by C. G. Cunningham at a cost of $25,000, and is a picturesque and serviceable addition to the apartment houses of the city. The building is of three storeys with four suites on each floor. Each suite is equipped with all modern conveniences. Quite a feature of the new apartment house is the spacious grounds which are to be laid out for the use of the tenants. A double tennis court will be laid out. The new apartment house was built by David Fair, the whole of the reconstruction work being carried out under the personal supervision of Mr. Cunningham.

Niagara Falls To Cease; Whole Earth Crust Changes

By W. M. BREWER
District Mining Engineer

Is the earth's surface stable?

The seemingly stable crust of our earth undergoes slow but stupendous alterations. In the course of our brief lifetime we may not notice them, but if we do, we marvel at them. Such things as a river that has shifted its course, a harbor that becomes choked with sand, or a mud island that is washed away by the waves interest us strongly. Yet the researches of geology show that during the long succession of centuries rivers which run from the uplands to the sea may entirely remove mountains and spread them out as sediments upon the ocean floor. In the course of time these deposits may be lifted above the sea again to form new land; for the crust of the earth is not quiet, but is forever heaving up and down, breaking, contracting, bending and expanding, converting sea-bottoms into dry land, sinking mountains into the sea, and crumpling plains into mountains.

It has lately been ascertained that the whole region of the Great Lakes is undergoing a slow tilting to the southwest. Measurements, extending over a number of years, of the distances between certain marks and the level of the lakes render it probable that the region is being lifted on one side or depressed on the other, and that the rate of change is such that the two ends of a line 100 miles long and lying in a southwest direction are relatively displaced four-tenths of a foot in 100 years. The waters of each lake are rising on the southern and western shores, or falling on the northern and eastern shores, or both. At one point on a tract of land near Sandusky, Ohio, which has been made in 1828 is now permanently under water. G. J. Gilbert, in the 18th annual report of the United States Geological Survey, estimates that in 3,500 years the Falls of Niagara will cease to flow as a consequence of this movement. From a Talk to Prospectors, now being conducted as a series under direction of Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines.

Vivian Daniel plays the leading role in "Cold Feet," Al Christie's latest comedy, now being completed at Truckee, California. It is said to be a travesty on the time honored "Mallards" dealing with the Northwest Mounted Police, half breed Indian guides, dog teams and wronged ladies lost in the Eternal snows.

The opening of the new inn is indication of the resourcefulness of the people of the theatre. Resourcefulness whether it be in hunting up some new line of employment or in patching up last season's wardrobe, is the most valuable asset of thousands of actors in New York to-day, and in many cases the only asset that has not been put in hook. For the theatrical situation, if it has changed at all within recent weeks, has changed for the worse. An estimate by several local managers published the other day declared fully half of the 15,000 players on this continent are out of work. Reports from all over the continent—Canada included—indicate that the stage situation is general.

Heavy Expenses. Aside from the general let-up in luxury buying, many reasons are ascribed for the extremely hard times in the theatre. The managers complain of very heavy overhead expenses—increased railroad fares and union regulations which, they claim, require employment of a lot of unnecessary men at high wages. Union leaders declare high wages are not responsible. They blame the railroad rates and competition of the movies. Both agree that while a company on tour formerly was a paying proposition if the box office took in seven or eight thousand dollars a week, it requires almost

Stops Pain Instantly

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in two forms—a colorless, clear liquid (one drop does it) and in extra thin plasters. Use whichever form you prefer, plasters or the liquid—the action is the same. Safe, gentle. Fry's

D.R. Andrew Wilson, the eminent British authority, once said of the cocoa bean—"It is a kind of vegetable egg which contains all that is needed to build up a living body." Tea and coffee are mere infusions—but cocoa is an actual food in itself. Business men should remember that.

Cocoa, made the FRY way, from the world's choicest beans, is pure, extremely soluble and of most delicious flavour. Nearly two hundred years' knowledge of the cocoa business stands back of FRY'S. Of course, remember double that income nowadays to keep the show going.

Ticket Speculators. In New York there is a disposition to blame the ticket speculators. The exorbitant rates that many of them have been securing, it is declared, have prompted the public to revolt. The best people, who formerly filled the orchestra seats, are on strike.

The hard times are felt throughout the profession, and are also hitting those with whom members of the profession have been wont to trade. Tailors, landladies and boarding house keepers are feeling the pinch. This is shown by the large number of judgments that have been sought these last few weeks against stage folk for unpaid bills.

The fact that they are up against it generally has made the Rev. John Roach Straton's recent tirade against the theatre and all its workers a particularly bitter pill for the stage folk to swallow. A vigorous counter-campaign launched this week has made the reverend gentleman who has undertaken to criticize the profession the target for many shafts.

Case for Defence. Several prominent stars, including Lillian Gish and Laurette Taylor, have been given an opportunity of stating the case for the defence from the city pulpit. Five hundred pastors were entertained at a special performance of "Marjoline," the musical comedy founded on Parker's "Commander Walk," and heard a defence of the stage and a criticism of Mr. Straton from John Emerson, President of the Actor's Equity Association. Al Jolson is also having something to say about the matter. Jolson's method of defending the people of his profession is probably the most effective. In the first place he has a wide field, for "Bombo" is one of the productions that is attracting large audiences regularly.

Attracts Many People. So Jolson reaches more people than Mr. Straton can hope to reach. Mr. Straton appears weekly while Mr. Jolson appears nightly. Mr. Straton is spectacular and thrilling, but he lacks Jolson's ability to "put his stuff over." Jolson has an almost uncanny facility for setting up a sympathetic understanding with his audience. It is one of the most interesting of his varied talents. When you go to Jolson's theatre you hand yourself over to Jolson for the evening. You are his property until the last curtain falls and he does what he likes with you. You simply cannot resist him, unless perchance you are a chronic dyspeptic beyond all hope of joy, or happen to be suffering from severe neuralgia, but if you are a dyspeptic or neuralgic you don't go to Jolson's theatre. Jolson will grab your emotions and twist them around his little finger. One moment he has you laughing until you ache, and the next he is singing about "My Mammy," and giving you the blues. You realize that it is a fool song, that the words are silly, that the man's grotesque burnt cork make-up is absolutely incongruous with the slightest serious emotion that the song is not being sung but shouted at you to a wailing jazz accompaniment. Nevertheless, unless you are inhumanly hard-boiled, you cannot escape a tightening of the throat.

The situation. Jolson does not devote much time to Mr. Straton. It is not what he says, but the way he says it, that counts. He opens up with a series of witty remarks about the controversy. Then suddenly he becomes serious. The people of the stage are prone to be misunderstood and misjudged, he tells you. They are merely hardworking citizens like yourself. He recounts in a simple straightforward way some of the difficulties they encounter. He speaks of the rules under which most of them must work, rules calling for strict sobriety and exemplary behavior while on duty, and he refers briefly to the unfortunate position in which many of them find themselves as a result of the general depression in the theatrical business. It is unworthy of Mr. Straton, he suggests, to cast a slur upon thousands of worthy people in the time of their misfortune. The storm of applause that greets this denotes the sympathetic attitude of the audience.

Then, having scored his point, Jolson quickly switches back to comedy. With pseudo-seriousness he introduces the subject of prohibition. While himself strictly neutral, he declares, he thinks the working man should be allowed his beer. This is greeted enthusiastically by the thrifty. "As for whisky," he continues, "I just want to tell you that I wouldn't care if all the whisky and hard liquor in the world was down at the bottom of the sea." After pausing long enough to give the "drys" opportunity of registering approval, he adds, "When I was young I learned deep-sea diving."

Charlie Ascott, the well known comedian, who plays the part of "Tin Ear" Fagin, a prize ring tout, in "The Leather Pushers," the sensational H. C. Witwer stories of the squared circle, which Universal is filming with Reginald Denny as the star, has been engaged for the leading role in a big comedy feature, when he has completed work in the series.

Owen Moore's newest comedy was written and directed by Henry Lehrman.

A FORMER VICTORIAN.

Brief reference was made last week to the tragic death of Benjamin G. Haigh, at the age of 74 at San Jose, California. His brother, Samuel, writing to friends here who knew them both for many years in Victoria, says a car struck Mr. Haigh, who lived 53 hours after the accident, remaining unconscious throughout. Haigh was left in the roadway for some time, till a passing automobile carried him to the Columbia hospital, where later he died. Samuel Haigh is anxious to know from local members of the Knights of Pythias if his brother remained in good standing in the organization.

Science Proves the Danger of Bleeding Gums

Medical science proves that unhealthy gums cause serious ailments. People suffering from Pyorrhea (a disease of the gums) often suffer from other ills, such as rheumatism, anaemia, nervous disorders, or weakened vital organs. These ills have been traced in many cases to the Pyorrhea germs which breed in pockets about the teeth.

Four out of five people over forty have Pyorrhea. It begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the infecting Pyorrhea germs.

Guard your health and your teeth. Keep Pyorrhea away. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and make daily use of Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean.

ANDROS WELCOMED TO CITY COUNCIL*Mayor Announces Shuffle of Committee Duties

Alderman E. B. Andros was welcomed into the City Council family by Mayor Marchant last night. The Mayor said he appreciated and expected great things from the former Finance Chairman's experience and sagacity.

Alderman Andros replied that he was fully aware of the tremendous difficulties and problems facing the City and emphasized the necessity for the strictest economy in City affairs this year.

The Mayor announced that Alderman Andros would replace ex-Alderman

Lineham on the Public Utilities Committee and on the Unemployment Committee and asked that the Public Utilities Committee be named a permanent committee. Alderman Patrick has been acting as chairman.

The Mayor asked the Public Utilities Committee to undertake the work of entertaining prominent men who may be the guests of the City from time to time.

EFFORT TO CHANGE PERIOD OF EARLY TIME HERE FAILS

A last-minute attempt to shorten the period of daylight saving here this Summer, launched at the City Council meeting last night by Alderman Dewar, failed dismally. Alderman Dewar urged that daylight saving should start June 1 and end in September, instead of starting May 1, as under plans recently approved by the Council. He said that April was too early in the year for the satisfaction, enforcement of early time, and pleaded for men whose occupations force them to rise in the very early hours of the morning.

"Why ask like children by changing our minds from one week to another. We have already decided to start daylight saving in May," Alderman Patrick protested.

The plan previously adopted to put the advanced time into force at the beginning of April was re-adopted 1 a 6-4 vote.

NO ARMS SHIPMENTS.

BLAME OFFICIALS FOR SINKING FUND DIVERSIONS HERE

But Investigating Committee Admits Good Intentions

Disapprove "Loose" Methods; Propose Sweeping Changes

Credit Not Impaired; "Illegal" Methods Saved Money

"Full responsibility" for the "improper and illegal" diversion of City Sinking Funds must be borne by City Comptroller J. I. Raymur and City Treasurer E. C. Smith, according to the long expected report of the special City Council Committee which recently carried out an exhaustive investigation of "the irregular methods" of handling sinking funds in recent years.

The Committee's findings as laid before the Council last night are:

1. That local improvement sinking funds were improperly and illegally diverted during a number of years prior to 1921.

2. That the diverted funds were not used for the discharge of ordinary city accounts, but were used to maintain intact the general sinking funds, which otherwise, owing to deficiencies in tax collections, would also have shown serious shortages.

3. That the aggregate amount paid by the city on account of interest and sinking funds were greater than the amounts received on account of these items.

4. That the practice of diverting funds followed naturally and inevitably from the loose system of civic accounting which prevailed in the boom years prior to 1914. This system is explained more fully below.

5. That full responsibility for the improper handling of funds must be borne by City Comptroller Raymur and City Treasurer Smith, whose duties in respect to sinking funds are clearly defined by law.

6. That the former City Auditor neglected to call the attention of the Council to the irregular methods in vogue during his term of office.

Held Wrong Conception.

7. That the fundamental conception of sinking funds as trust funds, i.e., as moneys held in trust on behalf of the debenture holders and at all times to be kept inviolate, regardless of the dictates of policy and expediency, has never been rightly held by either of the city officials above mentioned.

8. That the aforementioned officials, whilst adopting and practicing a bad method of accounting, were guilty of wrong intention, and actually saved money to the ratepayers by the irregular methods of handling funds.

9. That neither the Mayor, nor the Council, nor the Finance Committee of 1919 and 1920 had a positive direct knowledge of the diversion and that little, if any blame can attach to either.

10. That the Council of 1921 showed its disapproval of the irregularities by unanimously adopting a resolution calling the attention of the civic officials to the necessity of strict compliance with the law.

Recommendations.

The committee recommends as follows:

1. That the city comptroller and city treasurer be instructed to see that the requirements of the various acts governing municipal finance, be strictly complied with.

2. That the auditor be instructed to report and advise at the earliest possible moment on the best system of accounting, applicable to the needs of the municipality, and to make such suggestions for the reorganization of the treasury department as he may deem advisable in the interests of efficiency.

3. That the Council place on record its strong disapproval of the irregular practices approved by the city treasurer and city comptroller for a number of years prior to 1921, and its belief that such methods have tended to obscure from the public the real state of the city's finances, and to postpone the adoption of effective remedies.

4. That the existing accommodation of the accounting department is quite inadequate and that better facilities would result in greater efficiency and economy.

5. That the period for collecting taxes on real estate be brought forward each year by one month, until May 21st is reached, commencing with September 30th of the present year, or that in the alternative, legislation be sought, permitting the collection of taxes during the year, the first to be not later than May 10th, and the second to be not later than September 30th.

6. That the investigations of your committee have shown that the diversions have not impaired the city's financial position. That it is the opinion of the committee that with economy and sound business administration of the city's finances, reverted lands and other assets, the credit of the city will be well maintained.

The report goes on:

"It appears that for a great many years past it has been the practice to borrow from the bank, as a first collection, an amount sufficient to pay interest on debentures and to defray the ordinary expenses of the corporation. All corporation debts have been first placed to the credit of the general account and allocated by cheque to the several accounts of the corporation.

"So long as a high percentage of collections was maintained, the ills of this rough and ready system were not apparent. The sinking funds, both local improvement and general, were kept fully paid, regardless of whether the collections on account of these funds did or did not amount to 100 per cent. In the years of depression, however, the percentage of collections per capita fell, the bank continued to advance money to pay interest on debentures, and to maintain essential services, at the amount received in taxation, and not suffice to repay the bank and maintain the sinking funds intact.

A Beautiful Complexion & Admiration

Ladies—A few days' treatment with CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS will do more to clean up the skin than all the beauty treatments in creation. An impure complexion is caused by a sluggish liver. Millions of people, old, young and middle age, take them for Biliousness, Dispepsia, Sick Headache, Upset Stomach and for Sallow, Pimply and Bloated Skin. They end the misery of Constipation.

Small Pill—Small Dose—Small Price

The city officials, therefore, repaid the bank and paid up the general sinking funds in full, and allowed the local improvement sinking funds to go short.

At the same time they sought and obtained legislative authority to refund these accumulated shortages to the ratepayers. (Victoria City Act, 1920, Sec. 21.) That this policy had many practical advantages it cannot be denied. It gave the city the use of its own funds, saved considerable sums in interest and effected economies in accounting. These admitted advantages appear to have blinded the officials of the city to the fact that this practice was both illegal and irregular, and that they were incurring a legal liability that neither of these gentlemen placed his views in writing, and it is altogether probable that conversations of a general character took place, and that no specific instructions or advice was given.

"It should be further added that the city officials, Messrs. Raymur and Smith, strongly maintain that this legislation, because he sought both instruction and advice from Auditor Grimison, ex-Mayor Porter, ex-Alderman Sargent and City Solicitor Pringle. It is both noteworthy and regrettable that neither of these gentlemen placed his views in writing, and it is altogether probable that conversations of a general character took place, and that no specific instructions or advice was given.

"If this was agreed to last year we can hardly quarrel with it now," said Alderman Leeming.

"Why shouldn't the guarantors of a project like this get something for it?" Alderman Gillespie demanded.

Provision For Bond Protection.

Alderman Hayward said that under the Inter-municipal Cemetery Act it would be possible to create a fund to protect the guarantors of the new cemetery bonds.

"The city did not ask for this section of the act which prevents us from making a profit," Alderman Woodward asserted. "No member of the Council knew of it. It was slipped into the act. It's true we need a cemetery, but we also needed the Johnson Street Bridge."

"Did we?" asked the Mayor.

"And it we had examined the bridge scheme carefully in the first place as we should regard this scheme we would not be faced with a deficit of $100,000 and possibly more now," Alderman Woodward added.

"When this scheme first came up we never considered a profit," Alderman Dewar affirmed.

"If we don't act quickly there will be a private cemetery established and operated for a profit."

"We undoubtedly get the worst end of this deal," the Mayor warned. "This scheme practically forces us to establish a cemetery in Saanich."

SAANICH BERRY GROWERS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Nearly 400 Tons Strawberries Sold Last Year; Cherries Profitable

Over a hundred and twenty berry growers of Saanich district last night filled all seating accommodation available at the Keesling Hotel at the annual meeting of the Saanich Fruit Growers' Association.

The directors' report gave the following statistics of the past season's operations: 18,000 crates, averaging over 150 tons, strawberries handled for Prairie markets, netting $1.68 per crate; nearly 34 tons strawberries in 4,250 crates sold locally; 15,000 pails of cherries, netting $1.25 tons; 308 crates and 1,575 pails of loganberries for jam, totalling 19½ tons; 2,620 crates Olivet cherries shipped and 418 crates placed locally.

Great Growth.

Membership in the Association had grown in the past eighteen months from 68 to 110, with a great acreage increase, while over a score of new applications were received at the meeting.

The directors urged no more prairie shipments of gooseberries be made, as they were a losing venture. Dealing with last year's marketing experience, the report stated that pre-cooling would have obliterated the ill effects caused by wet weather, which had resulted in not one car arriving at destination in good shape.

"Considering the abnormal conditions we think the returns compare favorably with that of any other association," notes the report.

Can Ship to Montreal.

President Tanner, in explaining the report, said at some length with regard to plans, stating that last year certain mainland associations so equipped made a better price than the island growers, while the pre-cooling of island berries would ensure their shipping in first class condition, to Montreal if necessary.

Mr. Tanner aroused great interest by stating the Gordon Head growers had decided closely to co-operate with Saanich in shipping policy, instead of, as last year, marketing through the B. C. Berry Growers' Association.

ELEVEN-HOUR WARNING HOLDS UP BURIAL PLAN

Aldermen Want to Make Profit Out of New Cemetery

Just as it seemed that the City Council was on the verge of taking action on the new cemetery scheme, which has been held up for years, sudden opposition to the project delayed its adoption again last night. It was Alderman E. S. Woodward who unexpectedly held up the scheme when the cemetery agreement between Victoria and Saanich came up for formal approval.

"I won't exactly oppose this, but I want to point out some of the regrettable features of the agreement," said Alderman Woodward. "Under this agreement we are forever barred from making any profits on this cemetery, and thus we lose the power we possess in this connection in the Ross Bay Cemetery. We are, under this plan, guarantors of bonds that theoretically and probably actually will be burdens on the city. It is doubtful whether we shall be wise to tie ourselves up to a body like the Cemetery Board, under which we shall lose all control over the cemetery. It would be wiser to have our own cemetery, and charge such prices that will bring in a reasonable return on the money invested. There is nothing that can be more remunerative than a cemetery properly run. You buy land by the acre and sell it by the foot. While our ideal should be to operate our public utilities without profit when we are in our present position we should expect to make something on a project of this kind."

Against Profit.

"We shouldn't go into the cemetery business with the idea of making a profit," Alderman Dewar protested. "We should expect the cemetery only to pay for itself. We should adopt this agreement and keep faith with Saanich municipality."

Alderman Andros declared that the 1921 Council, including Alderman Woodward, had been unanimously in favor of the cemetery scheme. A new cemetery was needed immediately, he added.

"If this was agreed to last year we can hardly quarrel with it now," said Alderman Leeming.

"Why shouldn't the guarantors of a project like this get something for it?" Alderman Gillespie demanded.

their shipments through one firm, with a resulting better and guaranteed price, was forecasted.

To secure high grading of the pack, the directors recommended and the meeting decided that crates falling to pass inspection should be returned to the growers to be "hulled" for jam berries, this preventing their arrival at the market as crate fruit bearing the association name and quality guarantee.

President Tanner advised that members be required to sign crop contracts, but this was left in abeyance on account of the late hour. The proposal of the directors that the Association commence collective marketing immediately berries are available instead of awaiting heavy production was adopted as stabilizing early market prices.

Large Aggregate.

In discussing the prices received, it was noted that total sales of fruit netted $78,489, which the growers received $77,329, while the plan of levying a flat charge per crate to cover association charges was considered.

demned by the directors, who favored substitution of a percentage of the realized price. This course was authorized. Last year's charges by the Association aggregated $5,525.

One interesting detail showed that jam made and marketed under the Association's name had netted $4,750. This jam was sold through a Calgary wholesale house, and made a very favorable impression.

Proposals that three or four of the seven directors hold office for two years, to secure continuity of policy, met with little favor, the members believing that the principle of annual elections for the whole board gave continuity in office to satisfactory workers.

New Directorate.

Of the fifteen names proposed as directors, the following were elected: H. E. Tanner, C. B. McCarthy, C. Oldfield, Capt. J. G. C. Wood, H. H. Crist, S. Vantregh and H. H. Sutton, in whose favor B. Holloway withdrew after a tie had been created for the seventh seat.

H. E. Tanner was immediately elected as president by his fellow directors, amid applause from the members, and C. B. McCarthy was chosen as vice-president.

A hearty vote of thanks was given the retiring board, the mover commenting upon the difficulties mastered during the past year.

Pre-Cooling Plan.

A contract with a Victoria cold storage firm for pre-cooling services was laid before the members, to be entered into by the Saanich and Gordon Head growers in association together. The minimum crop to be handled will be ten thousand crates, or twelve carloads, and the charges will progressively decrease from the proposed initial charge.

The Association was informed that three brokerage houses were offering to market the combined Island and Mainland shipping crops, and it is expected a good cash price for pre-cooled berries will be offered.

Prices for jam berries would also be affected if co-operation was general, explained President Tanner, whereupon the members endorsed the proposal for co-operation and left details to the directorate.

The remainder of the business was laid over until March 20, owing to the lateness of the hour.

A Beauty Specialist Gives Home-Made Recipe to Darken Gray Hair.

Mrs. M. D. Gillespie, a well-known beauty specialist of Kansas City, recently gave out the following statement regarding gray hair:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water and 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Orlex Compound and ¼ ounces of glycerine. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make
